COULD HARDLY STAND AT TIMES

Hips, Back and Legs Would Have That Tired Ache

Everett, Washington.—"For several years I have had trouble with the lowest part of my back and my hips and my legs would ache with that tired ache. I could hardly stand on my feet at times. I was always able to do my work although I did not feel good. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and having heard several praise it I decided to try it. I feel first-rate at the present time. It has done wonders for me and I keep it in the house right along. I always recommend it to others who are sick and ailing."—Mrs. J. M. SIMS, 4022 High St., Everett, Washington.

To do any kind of work, or to play for that matter, is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trouble. It may cause your back or your legs to ache, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women. It is especially adapted to relieve the cause of the trouble and then these annoying pains, aches and "no good" feelings disappear.

It has done this for many, many women; why not give it a fair trial—now.

LAWRENCETOWN BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

One of the best and most largely attended meetings of the Social Circle of the Baptist Church, of Lawrencetown, was held on Monday evening, March 27th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Banks. Previous to the evening meeting the ladies gathered for the purpose of sewing for the coming Easter sale and as a result of their diligence quite useful articles were made ready.

In addition to the rare social privileges enjoyed in the evening, a fine program of music and readings were presented, the following taking part with much acceptance: Piano duet, the Misses Borden; piano duet, Mrs. A. P. Runsey, Miss Harriett Borden; vocal duet, Messrs. Alton Brown and A. H. Whitman; readings, Mrs. Chas. Balcom, Mrs. Horace Reid, Mrs. L. H. Hanley.

A splendid report of current events interspersed with lively flashes of wit, of both general and local application was prepared and read by Mrs. Paul Durling. Refreshments were bountiful, served by the hostess, Mrs. Banks.

A very interesting feature of the evening's entertainment, both informing and fun-provoking was conducted by Miss Eliza Crandall in the form of a botanics questionnaire.

These social gatherings are certainly growing in popularity, and are filling a most important part in bringing the people together for social and educational purposes.

Miss Alice Harrison, Secretary of the Elementary Department of the Maritime Religious Education Council, held a special meeting with the Sunday School workers of the Lawrencetown district in the vestry of the Baptist Church on Wednesday afternoon and evening, March 29th. Representatives were present from the various schools of the district, and all listened with deep interest to the stirring addresses by Miss Harrison.

Mrs. Charles Balcom, of Lawrencetown, gave an interesting review of her work in connection with the children's Division for the last eighteen years. All felt that Sunday School work generally, and in particular that of the Elementary Department, was worthy of their most loyal and enthusiastic support.

Pastors H. T. Jones and A. H. Whitman are arranging for a series of Pre-Easter Evangelistic services to be held alternately in the Baptist and Methodist Churches. The first meeting took place on Tuesday evening, April 4th, at the Baptist Church. All are urged to give these services the right of way which they deserve.

Work on the new veranda of the Baptist parsonage will be begun early in April. This, when finished, will make the parsonage one of the most attractive and comfortable pastor's homes in the Valley.

Miss Mary Allison, Secretary of Girls' Work of the Maritime Religious Education Council, conducted a conference with the ladies and teen age girls of Lawrencetown, on Saturday afternoon, April 1st, at the Baptist Church. Miss Allison is certainly fitted for the work both socially and intellectually, and all who listened to her address were impressed not only with her ability as a leader lover of girls but also with the splendid possibilities of work done in connection with the program of the four-fold development of the girls of our land.

INDUSTRIAL EFFICIENCY

While there is much talk of the need of industrial efficiency, the fact is that some of the most important elements in the efficiency problem are bound to be overlooked just so long as industry is regarded as a mere means of making profits or acquiring wages. When the major problem of business becomes the manufacture and maintenance of healthy human beings, all the rest will be added without trouble.

Modern industry has a few sins to answer for. The average life of the factory worker is much shorter than that of the farmers. Certain maladies are already classed as industrial diseases. Recent studies have indicated that defective vision and faulty illumination are big factors in the loss of industrial efficiency. Toronto is our chief manufacturing city, and when the eyes of 1,000 workers there were examined, it was found that only one hundred and two had normal vision at working distances. Of the rest, four hundred and sixty had slight vision defects, while four hundred and eight or forty-one per cent. had faulty eye sights which interfered with their work and necessitated the use of glasses. The bad effects of defective vision do not end with inefficient work; defective eyes use up more nerve force, that they should, they cannot function properly. Eye-strain means head-ache, general debility, and increasing bad health.

Industrial establishment should not only have illumination by the roof if possible, side windows should be plenty and of transparent glass. Time lost by workers looking out of windows does not spell lowered production. Changing focus by looking through a window rests the eyes, and will help to prevent defective vision, and its attendant evils.

LUCKY FOR HENRY HE BELONGS TO THE AGE

Had Great Magician Lived Three Hundred Years Ago, Would Probably Have Been Burned at Stake.

Most of us are glad we weren't born three hundred years ago, but S. S. Henry, the great magician, who appears in Bridgetown at the Court House in the near future, has a special reason.

"How on earth could I have made a living then?" he inquires. "About my first trick and they would have burned me to the stake for a magician."

Of course Henry is a magician. But his magic isn't the black variety. It's the white variety, tinged with sunshine and humor. This talented man from the minute he takes the stage, keeps his audience in a state of constant bewilderment. "How does he do it?" the people ask, as he passes rapidly from mystery to mystery, from novelty to novelty and from surprise to surprise.

In addition to the mysterious and unfathomable tricks for which he is noted, Henry is also an artist, and his lightning sketches in colored crayons and sand will be thoroughly enjoyed.

HISTORIC CATHEDRAL AT QUEBEC DESTROYED BY FIRE

The Basilica of Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Quebec, famous for its shrine, was destroyed March 28th. The flames started in the Sacristy, rapidly spread to the monastery of the Redemptorist Fathers, who cared for the shrine, and there to the Basilica. The statue of St. Anne, with the relics which have caused many miraculous cures, was saved.

STARTED BY SHORT CIRCUIT

The fire is believed to have been started by a short circuit in the electric wiring system of the Sacristy. In less than an hour flames which drove the Brothers away from the building were consuming the Basilica. A call for help was despatched to the fire department of Quebec and the chief of the brigade, with an engine and a company of men was rushed to the scene on a special train. Meanwhile the flames spread to the monastery of the Redemptorist Fathers and defied the efforts of the courageous little band of volunteers to check it.

Seeing that the great Basilica was in grave danger, the Brothers decided to remove everything of value from its interior. Rev. Brother Bruneau himself, at the risk of his life, succeeded in carrying out the precious relics and the statue of St. Anne. The flames entered the Basilica from the monastery through the roof, which the stream of water, being directed on the building, could not reach. In a few moments the fine structure was ablaze from end to end and in an incredibly short space of time the two towers of the Cathedral, which were over one hundred and sixty feet high, fell to the ground.

The monetary loss involved is estimated at $1,200,000, while the insurance carried will probably reach the sum of $500,000. Although no definite plans have yet been announced by the Redemptorist Fathers, it was stated that as soon as possible work would be started to rebuild the venerable pile and it was said that it would be constructed on a larger and even more imposing scale than the building which has just been destroyed.

DEATH OF SIR JOHN C. EATON

The death of Sir John Craig Eaton, President and head of the T. Eaton Company of Toronto, took place on March 30th, at Toronto, after an illness of about six weeks. While attending to business in Montreal and New York he contracted cold which was followed by pneumonia and later by complications which resulted fatally.

Sir John was in his forty-sixth year of age and was reputed to be Toronto's most wealthy citizen. He succeeded his father as head of the great Eaton firm in 1909, carrying out the father's ideals regarding the business and enlarging them very extensively until their buying or selling establishments almost reached around the world.

Sir John was particularly noted for his influence toward the enlistment of his own employees and gave full pay to all married and half pay to all single men who would enlist. There were over 3,000 of these volunteers and for this work he spent over $2,000,000. He also equipped and sent at his own expense a machine gun battery.

Quite recently he had built the Eaton Memorial Wing to the Toronto General Hospital, contributing $400,000 for this purpose which was added to $100,000 given by his father.

To the Dept. of Medicine of the University he quite recently gave half a million dollars, besides providing for an annual income of $25,000 for a period of twenty years.

Throughout his short life his gifts have been most generous and varied. A few years ago with his mother he built and equipped the Timothy Eaton Memorial Methodist Church of Toronto, one of the finest church edifices in Canada, to the Y.M.C.A. he had always contributed very largely. In December, 1917, at the Halifax disaster, he at once fitted out and hired a special train loaded with supplies and sent to Halifax, coming along himself to personally attend their distribution. Beside his large mercantile business he was a director of the C.P.R. and the Dominion Bank and other organizations.

He was also noted for his human treatment of his help and introduced in the shops the shorter hours and other improvements for his employees.

In 1919 he closed his store entirely on Saturdays during the month of July and August, and made his working days eight hours only for the balance of the year, and the Saturday half holiday was made throughout the entire year.

Sir John leaves a widow and five children, also a mother and two married sisters, an only brother died several years ago. The present Vice-President of the company, R. P. Eaton, is a cousin of the deceased.

Premier Lloyd George is a charming personality. He has such winning ways.
