This volume is by the very popular minister of the City Temple, London. Dr. Joseph Parker. They are introduced by Dr. Charles F. Deems, who gives a sketch of the eloquent preacher's life, and a pleasant criticism of his style. The first portion of the work is a series of expository sermons upon Matthew's Gospel, and the second part presents Christ as a preacher. These discourses are happy specimens of expository preaching, fresh, flowing, practical and impressive.
