AN unaccountable deficit of $14,800 in the books of Mr. John Hennessy, discount clerk of many years' standing in La Banque du Peuple, has been made good by a relative of that gentleman.

J. F. DION, a general storekeeper, who started in a small way at Drummondville, Que., last summer, and formerly of Acton Vale, has assigned to Montreal creditors. His stock is worth about $1,000.

The scarcity of grain during the past season led vessels at Quebec to load with timber and deals at any price, producing a glut in England which reacted and depressed the market here as well as there, and contributed to the troubles of individual firms already noted.

About 25,000 pounds of starch, or over 12 tons, from the Island factories, was shipped from Summerside, P.E.I., to Point du Clene in two days of last week. The starch-making industry is growing fast on the Island, and large quantities are now shipped to all parts of Canada as well as to Europe.—Ex.

On the 15th inst., a Dalhousie street (Ottawa) dry goods merchant, named Savard, who has been acting as agent for Mr. Crawford Ross, a prominent retail merchant of that city, was taken into custody on a warrant issued at the instance of the latter, charging him with the embezzlement of quite a large amount. The prisoner was subsequently admitted to bail.

L. LIVERNOIS, fruit importer, who has been doing business in this city for the last thirty years, has made an assignment to a local creditor. His failure has been traced to speculation in stocks and Chicago produce which had depreciated in value. His financial losses are variously estimated at between thirty and forty thousand dollars, but his liabilities are not onerous, and are distributed among Montreal and New York firms.

LASALLE & LASALLE, general dealers, St. Thomas de Pierreville, Que., have assigned to Kent & Turcotte of this city, evidently unable to carry out the compromise of 40 cents in the dollar effected some two months ago. *They showed liabilities at that time of about $11,000, with assets of about $7,500, in which were included book debts of about $2,000 against the Indians, and of course uncollectable by suit. An accountant has been sent to investigate.

A LAFAMME, of Three Rivers, Que., dry goods dealer, has assigned. He was formerly clerk with L. J. Z. Beaudry, whose stock, amounting to $7,200, he bought early in 1882 for $5,000, having five years to pay it. He started under fair auspices, but having little or no means of his own, and relying mostly on the assistance and indulgence of Mr. Beaudry, he found it impossible to make headway, and succumbed about the middle of the present month, assigning to Kent & Turcotte.

The sale of 2850 unallotted shares of Royal Canadian Insurance Company's stock, advertised for the 20th, has been postponed, pending a test of the legality of the writ of injunction served by Mr. F. B. Gilman, the owner of somewhat over one-third of the present stock of the company. The owners of the shares to be sold
