BRANCH 52 C.M.B.A. meets to-night.

Don't turn back that turned over leaf.

THE lower a thermometer gets the higher it is in the estimation of the coal dealer.

You will make no mistake if you patronize those who advertise in the REVIEW.

LAST Saturday the Farmer's Institute met to consider the advisability of operating a creamery in Brandon.

THIRTY-FIVE HUNDRED jack-rabbits shot at a recent hunt were distributed among the poor of Denver, Col., Christmas.

We wish when winter's chilly blasts completely chill us through, that landladies would come and say, "Is it warm enough for you?"

MRS MARIE THERESA CLARY, niece of His Grace the Archbishop of Kingston, Ont., died in Montreal on Saturday, Dec. 29.

HON. MACKENZIE BOWELL, premier of Canada, has been knighted by the Queen, and is now Sir Mackenzie Bowell, K. C. M. G.

THE first meeting of the newly elected city council for 1895, for the transaction of general business, took place on Monday evening.

WHEN turning over that new leaf for the New Year, don't carry forward any debts, if possible, but pay them all off and begin 1895 with a clean sheet.

BEGINNING with the New Year, all the conductors on the New York Central railroad will be compelled to give bonds in the sum of $2,000.

THE Toronto Globe and adjoining buildings were destroyed by fire Sunday morning. One fireman was killed outright, and another has since died.

THE Chicago Tribune publishes a list of 160 persons who, during the year 1894 were hanged for murder. Out of the entire list we fail to discover more than half a dozen Irish names.

STROVEL'S Pocket Directory for January is a compact little reference for anything and everything of account to Manitobans. This is the second issue, and gives six or seven much careful compilation, making it a necessary companion.

THE Queen called the Governor-General to ascertain the cause of Premier Bowell's illness, and to let her know the result. A consultation of specialists was held at Montreal, and the trouble was diagnosed as spasmodic laryngitis, and a few days rest was prescribed.

THE Boston Citizen (A. P. A.) seems to be hurt because "the Italian potentate" prohibits Catholics from joining the Oddfellows and Knights of Pythians.

JUSTICE HOGAN, of New York, was lenient with a drunken prisoner, in view of the earnest plea which the man's bull pup set up for him, at the bar of justice.

A FURTHER reduction of the working hours at the C. P. R. workshops went into effect on Monday. Work commences at 8.30 until 12, and from 1 till 4.30, excepting Saturdays, when the hours will be from 8.30 until 12.30.

THE Toronto World of the 5th instant says that Esten Williams, for twelve years clerk in the Provincial Education department, has been suspended, pending the investigation of a serious charge.

WAGHON'S GUIDE for January, is to hand. This issue marks the twelfth anniversary of its publication. It has been our valued companion for many years, and like good wine we feel that the Guide improves by age.

SUNDAY being the feast of Epiphany the musical service in St. Mary's church were of a special and attractive character.

THE members of the Humane society are now said to be on the war-path after those who are in the habit of being cruel to cats, in that the caretaker of one of the largest residential blocks in the city who has been known to constantly throw cats out of the upper windows of the building. As it has become the custom of a great many of the rulers of caution. Patriotic Protectors of Protestantism, truly.

A REGULAR meeting of Branch 163, C. M. B. A. was held last evening.

THE recount by Judge Walker in the Winnipeg Mayorality contest gives Mr. Thos. Gilroy a majority of eight over Mr. Alex. McMicken.

THE regular semi-monthly meeting of St. Mary's Court No. 276, C. O. F., will be held in Unity Hall, McIntyre Block, on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

SHOULD you find, upon examination of self, that you have no bad habits to give up this year, the chances are you are irreclaimable, and nothing can help you.

THE photographic parlors of Mrs. Carr, Main street, were visited by fire last week. Fortunately the damage was but slight, and her business was but little interfered thereby.

Mrs. HUGHES, relict of the late Michael Hughes, who was dangerously ill, and for whom prayers were requested at St. Mary's church on Sunday, we are happy to state is somewhat improved.

THE amount of wheat in store at Fort William on Saturday, Jan. 5, was 788,172 bushels. The receipts during the week amounted to 38,746 while the shipments were nil.

THE Chinese have offered a reward of 50 many taels (a Chinese coin) for the head of every Jap who can be killed. Somebody says this is a case of heads you lose, tails the other fellow wins.

"A good resolution is half the battle" was an ancient saw of our forefathers, but when it comes to the New Year's article sad experience shows that it usually comprises the whole of it.

Two grammar school teachers were married on a moving train near Hazelton. A transitive conjunction, possessive case, singular number and railroad time, governed by the pronoun "she," understood.

THE post office authorities has granted the privilege of allowing any card containing a one cent stamp and not larger or smaller than the usual post card, to go through the mails.

No date has yet been fixed upon for the opening of the local legislature, notwithstanding reports to the contrary. It is probable that the house will be called together early in February.

REV. MOTHER MARY of the Blessed Sacrament, nee Francesca Lutti, died at the Provincial Monastery, Montreal, on the 28th December. The funeral took place on Monday, the 31st Dec.

MAYOR KENNEDY has been re-elected for Toronto. The P. P. A.'s made the campaign a strictly religious issue, but returns from nine-tenths of the whole of the Ontario districts prove that they are but a minor factor.

SEVENTY persons received treatment at the St. Boniface hospital last week, among whom were thirty-eight males and thirty-two females. This hospital during the cold spell has afforded much relief to sufferers from the surrounding district.

THE Catholic schools of the city were re-opened on Monday after the Christmas holidays. The attendance was gratifying, and to note the bright and happy looking little faces, they appear to have enjoyed their convalescence, and both ready and willing to tackle their tasks again.

BENJAMIN SWAFFIELD, better known as "Catch-em-alive," whose melodious (?) voice made the air sound like a buzz saw while dispensing his fly catcher last summer, threatens to make his debut as a lecturer tomorrow evening. Now that Mercury has taken the down grade, Bennie sees no flies, and therefore will profess reform on the platform, where the temperature is milder.

At the Bijou. When the Carleton Opera company visits Winnipeg it is a nod that you are to prepare yourself for a season of fun and frolic, and that Mr. Rickett sustained his reputation as a mirth-provoking comedian last evening is beyond question.

This (Wednesday) evening Mr. Rickett will produce for the first time his new farce comedy "Wheels," which is said to be an extremely bright piece. The Troubadour specialties will be introduced. The performances are such that the most fastidious could not take offence, therefore a pleasant evening's recreation is in store for those who attend.

A newspaper in Illinois recently brought suit against forty-three men who would not pay their subscriptions and obtained judgment in each case for the amount of each claim. Of course, twenty-three made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allows them, thus preventing attachments. Then under decision of the Supreme Court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over to the sum of $300 each. All but six gave bonds. The postal laws make it petit larceny to take and refuse to pay for it.

GEORGE CRAIG & CO.

The Mammoth Department Store, with a $75,000 Stock of Choice Merchandise, a large part of which was bought this season at much under current values.

OUR CLOTHING SALE—In the South Store of the three stores all into One Big Centre—has been a great success, this was $21,000 of wholesale purchases at sacrifice prices to clear large lots, enabling us to sell $8 to $10. Overcoats for $5. About fifty of these left. Suits, hundreds of these at $10—worth from $15 to $18, and hundreds sold at $6.50, good value for $10.50, a good number of these still to clear.

PANTS—A great sale. $.25 pants for $1.25. $3.00 for $2.00—Shirts for 25c.

DRESS GOODS—1,000 dress patterns to close out at half price. Sale price $1.95 and $2.00. See these goods. Fancy Goods, thousands of dollars worth to sell before Xmas 've. These goods are selling at very small dry goods profits—little profit does us as our sales are so large now that even three per cent. net satisfies us, sales running over $1,000 a day. Not so bad in eight years unbusiness building. Thanks to every one too in assisting to achieve such triumphant results.

Now for December's Big Rare to advance still onward, and thus give you greater values than ever, come to
