"EVERY LOVER OF SHAKESPEARE SHOULD READ THIS BOOK."

Shakespeare's England.

By WILLIAM WINTER. New edition, revised, with numerous illustrations. Crown 8vo, cloth extra, gilt edges, $2.00.

"We recall most vividly the house wherein the poet first saw the light, our boat-ride upon the river after sunset, the church, the chancel, the grave before which many were kneeling in homage to genius, and we still treasure the little cluster of forget-me-nots that we gathered on the river bank near by. All this comes back upon us like a dream of Paradise as we pore over these delightful pages, so rich are they in tender thoughts and pleasant memories. It is difficult to see, indeed, how anyone of scholarly tastes can fail to find in this volume matter in abundance to instruct and language-painting to delight him beyond measure. The volume in its external features is simply superb. The paper is of the finest quality, the type large and clear. Besides an excellent portrait of the author, the book is embellished with nearly eighty drawings, beautifully executed. The binding, lettering, and gilding have been done in the best style known to the book-maker's art."—Boston Courier.

his head then dropped on his chest, whereas now it is held quite firm and erect; then he could not walk across a room without holding to a chair or table, while now he can walk without difficulty.

We called upon Mr. W. J. Smith, druggist, and interrogated him in reference to the case. Mr. Smith said that he knew of Mr. Robson's ailment and that he had suffered for years, as stated, and he had no doubt that it was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that cured him. "Pink Pills," said Mr. Smith, "have a remarkable sale, which seems due to their remarkable efficacy in curing diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, or an impairment of the nervous system, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus's dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration, and the tired feeling arising therefrom, the after-effects of la grippe, influenza and severe colds, diseases depending on humours in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions, and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of any nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, (printed in red ink.) Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Ask your dealers for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and refuse all imitations and substitutes.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ontario, or Schenectady, N.Y., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive, as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

town sitting quite erect on a cross board a lumber wagon, and controlling a lively team of horses. Hailing him we asked what miracle had brought about this changed condition, and asked if he had any objection to the publication of the facts connected with his case. Replying, he said he would indeed be a mean man, if he refused to let the public know how his wonderful recovery had been brought about. Mr. Robson then told the story of his illness and recovery about as follows:—
"About ten years ago, while living in the State of Ohio, I was taken down with an attack of typhoid fever and for three months hung between life and death in a perfectly unconscious condition. Recovering from this I ventured out to work too soon, the result being that I was taken down with a severe cold. During the first stages of my trouble I was able to move about with some difficulty; but the disease gradually fastened its hold on me and I found one sense after another becoming paralyzed. At this time my prospects in life were by no means discouraging.
I owned a magnificent farm not far from Toledo, on which we had a comfortable home, and I owed not a dollar to any one. I continued to doctor with specialists and experts from all parts of the States each of whom promised to cure me of the disease, which they said was paralysis; but in every case they left me as bad and sometimes worse than they found me, physically, and certainly worse, financially. After suffering in this manner for two years my family concluded that a change of climate might do me good, and so we removed to Canada, settling where we now reside. This hope, however, proved a delusion, and each year found me worse and if possible added to my misery. Life became a burden to me, and I knew that I was worse than useless to my friends. I was unable to feed myself, my head and hands shook so that I frequently left stabs in my chin when trying to put my fork to my mouth. It was only occasionally that I could move around at all, and then only with the aid of crutches. I lost almost entire control of my power of speech and got so bad that members of my own family could not understand what I was saying. My whole nervous system seemed undermined, and I abandoned all hope of ever again being of any use to my family. Last fall I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and from that date my condition has steadily improved until, to-day, I am able to take my place with other men on the farm, and while my hand shakes a trifle, I am able to do a good day's work every day in the week. I am now able to walk a considerable distance, and my nervous system seems fully restored. There is not the slightest doubt that these results are entirely due to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills; and I am confident that had I been able to procure this wonderful remedy when I was first taken with the disease I would never have been where I was. The absolute truthfulness of the facts, as I have related them to you, can be verified by any member of my friends and neighbours.
As to much of the evidence contained in Mr. Robson's statement the writer can himself bear evidence. His speech, which one year ago could scarcely be understood, is now perfectly distinct;
