THE KIND OF SCHOOL HE WOULD LIKE.
"In my community," said a man from Missouri, "there are two saloons to every school."

"Wall," replied an old fellow from the border of the Indian Territory, "I must say that yore schools are well heeled, an' I reckon the scholars can git about all they want ter drink. I would like ter go ter a school that had even one saloon."

If something could be done to abolish the Alaska seal fisheries altogether, it would make many husbands very happy.

Between the hen and an incendiary you inquire
The difference? Why, one sets on eggs,
The other sets on fire.

A new tenor has made his appearance in Berlin, who possesses the much-coveted C sharp. He was an animal painter, and obliged to see sharp.

"What fresh air you have out here. It's so much fresher than in London." Farmer: "Jest so! That's jest what I was saying to my old woman. Why ain't all these big cities built out in the country?"

"I'm afraid," said a lady to her husband,
"that I am going to have a stiff neck."
"Not at all improbable, my dear," said her spouse, "I have seen strong symptoms of it ever since we were married."

Homer Allen, priest of palmistry, says you can't lie with the hand shut. It instinctively opens. It is also worth noting, says a critic, that you can't refute a lie with the hand open. It instinctively shuts.

"Can you tell me what is the funniest part of a dog?" "His tail, I guess. It's such a wag, you know." No, the funniest part of a dog is his lungs." "How do you make that out?" "They are the seat of his pants, don't you see?"

The front gate and the hammock
The old bench in the grove, Have had their day and must give way To the corner near the stove.

UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS.

The authorities of the University intend giving a building suitable for the purposes of athletic exercises, and no doubt it will be extensively patronized by the students. At the same time Trowern, the town jeweller, is preparing a new book of designs of medals for the same purposes. He has also everything in the jewellery line that a first-class manufacturing house requires.
