ARTICLE 18

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal, who has taken refuge in any of His Britannic Majesty's self-governing Dominions, Colonies or Possessions to which this convention may be made to the Governor-General, Governor, or chief authority, of such self-governing Dominion, Colony or Possession by the appropriate consular officer of the Esthonian Republic.

Such requisition may be dealt with, subject always, as nearly as may be, so far as the law of such self-governing Dominion, Colony, or Possession allows, to the provisions of this convention, by the competent authorities of such self-governing Dominion, Colony or Possession, provided nevertheless that an order for the committal of the fugitive criminal to prison to await surrender shall be made, the said Governor-General, Governor, or chief authority, instead of issuing a warrant for the surrender of such fugitive criminal, will refer the matter to His Britannic Majesty's Government.

Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any self-governing Dominion, Colony or Possession of His Britannic Majesty may be made through the diplomatic representative of such Dominion, Colony or Possession in the Republic of Esthonia, and the provisions of the present convention.

ARTICLE 19

It is understood that the provisions of the preceding articles shall apply in the same manner as if they were Possessions of His Britannic Majesty the following British Protectorates, Bechuanaland Protectorate, Gambia Protectorate, Kenya Colony and Protectorate, Nigeria Protectorate, Northern Rhodesia, Northern Territories of the Gold Coast, Nyasaland, Sierra Leone Protectorate, Solomon Islands Protectorate, Somaliland Protectorate, Swaziland, Uganda Protectorate and Zanzibar.

It is further understood that the provisions of the preceding articles shall apply to any British-protected State, or territory in respect of which a mandate is being exercised on behalf of His Britannic Majesty by the Government of the Union of South Africa, the Government of India or the Government of any other Dominion, which may hereafter be accepted by His Britannic Majesty, mandating the territories in respect of which mandates are being exercised on behalf of His Britannic Majesty by the Government of the Union of South Africa, the Government of India or the Government of any other Dominion, which may hereafter be accepted by His Britannic Majesty, and the provisions of the two preceding articles shall be deemed to apply to such protected States or mandated territories from the date prescribed in the notice issued for the purpose of effecting such extension.

It is further understood that the provisions of the present convention shall apply to British subjects shall be deemed also to apply to natives of any British protectorate or protected State or mandated territory to which the provisions of the two preceding articles apply [illegible] hereafter apply.

ARTICLE 20

The present convention shall come into force ten days after its publication in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties on notice not exceeding one year and not less than six months.

It shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the present convention and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done at London, the [illegible] day of [illegible], 1925.
