

relating to German-owned property, which have not ceased or been dedicated to the public, shall be dedicated to the public or placed in the public domain or continuously offered for licensing without royalty to the nationals of all Governments, parties to this Accord.

Article 2

In cases where a Government, party to this Accord, makes available by the grant of licences or otherwise to its own nationals rights under patents in which there was formerly a German interest (other than the patents specified in Article 1), such rights shall be made available to the nationals of all Governments, parties to this Accord, on the same terms as to the nationals of that Government.

Article 3

Subject to the provisions of Article 4, all licences granted in accordance with Article 1 and, in cases where the Government is not prevented by the terms of the patent, licence or other right which it acquires, all licences granted in accordance with Article 2 shall include the right to practise and exercise the inventions claimed in the patents, and to make, use and sell the products of the inventions regardless of where such products are manufactured.

Article 4

The provisions of Articles 1 and 2 shall be subject to the right of each Government to take appropriate measures to protect and preserve proprietary, licence or other rights or interests in such patents which have been before the 1st August, 1946, lawfully granted to or acquired by any non-German. An exclusive licence granted before the 1st August, 1946, may be protected by declining to grant any new licence during the period of such exclusive licence, and a non-exclusive licence may be protected by imposing on new licensees the same terms as those imposed on the existing licensee.

Article 5

For the purposes of this Accord, each Government may treat as non-German-owned those patents, or interests in patents, belonging to persons in special classes (such as Germans residing outside Germany, German refugees, etc.) whose property that Government has exempted or may in the future exempt from its general law and regulations relating to German-owned property.

Article 6

In order to carry out the purposes of this Accord and to provide for the interchange of information through a central office, the Government of the French Republic will provide facilities for receiving and disseminating reports from Governments, parties to this Accord, and for notifying these Governments of matters of common interest under this Accord.

Article 7

Each Government, party to this Accord, shall furnish as soon as possible to the central office referred to in Article 6, for transmission to the other Governments, parties to this Accord, a list of all former wholly or partly German-owned patents which are not available to the nationals of these Governments by
