

On behalf of the Minister of Communications of Canada, support was announced for the Holland in Canada '87 festival. A contribution by the Department of Communications, amounting to 300,000 Canadian dollars, was officially confirmed. The Netherlands presentation will be concentrated in the cities of Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. The program will include a wide range of cultural activities, including theatre, dance, music, literature, film, visual arts and socio-cultural activities. Most events will be presented in June 1987, although some activities will take place throughout the year.

It has been requested by both delegations that a special mention be made in the summary record of the three following subjects:

Literature

The visit in September 1986 of a delegation of Canadian publishers to the Netherlands was very successful, thanks to the cooperation of the Netherlands side. Both parties agreed to continue to encourage the translation and publication of literary works by their respective writers in each other's country.

Bank of Missions

The two parties have agreed that the Bank of Missions is a valuable mechanism for facilitating cultural and academic contacts between the two countries. They have decided to continue the Bank, at 120 days per year. The concept and
