

Article VIII - Exchanges in Tourism

1. The sides will promote the development of tourist ties between the two countries and will render all possible assistance to tourists who are travelling with the goal of acquainting themselves with the way of life, professional and cultural interests of the people of both countries.

Article IX - Exchanges of Both Countries

1. The sides will promote on a mutually acceptable basis the expansion of contacts between civil, public and professional associations, organizations and institutions of both countries. The sides will promote the development of cooperation in the publishing field between Soviet and Canadian publishing houses, in particular:

- the joint publishing of books;
- the exchange of various kinds of information;
- the publishing of Canadian authors in the USSR and Soviet authors in Canada