

General's major board project, however, has an important place in the Research Council's immediate program. Working closely with the Department of Agriculture and Energy through the Research and Development Branch, the Council is engaged in practical schemes to improve accuracy in all the sciences - mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology, geology and planning.