

Section II

Passenger-combination and/or all-cargo services may be operated on the following route by the airline(s) designated by the Government of the State of Kuwait:

Points in Kuwait	Intermediate Points	Points in Canada	Points Beyond
Any point or points	Any point or points in third countries	Any point or points	Any point or points in third countries

Notes:

The Contracting Parties confirm the following requirements.

1. Each designated airline may, on any or all flights and at its option, operate air services in either or in both directions, serve points on the route in any combination and omit stops at any Intermediate Points and Points Beyond, provided that all services originate or terminate in Kuwait. For own-aircraft all-cargo services, Points in Canada may be served separately or in combination. Two points in Canada may be selected by Kuwait for own-aircraft passenger-combination services which may be changed on sixty (60) days' notice to the aeronautical authorities of Canada or such lesser period as may be approved by the aeronautical authorities of Canada. Should two points be selected by Kuwait for own-aircraft passenger-combination services, they shall only be served in combination. Only one point in Canada may be selected for passenger-combination code-sharing services.
2. Transit and own-stopover rights shall be available at Intermediate Points and at Points in Canada. Fifth freedom rights for own-aircraft all-cargo services shall be available between any Intermediate Points and Points in Canada and between any Points in Canada and any Points Beyond. Fifth freedom points for passenger-combination services may be decided upon between aeronautical authorities.
3. Points to be selected by Kuwait may be changed on sixty (60) days' notice to the aeronautical authorities of Canada or such lesser period as may be accepted by the aeronautical authorities of Canada. The aeronautical authorities of Canada shall be notified of points to be served with fifth freedom rights at least ninety (90) days in advance or such lesser period as may be authorized by the aeronautical authorities of Canada. Each of the points with fifth freedom rights may be changed on ninety (90) days' notice to the aeronautical authorities of Canada or such lesser period as may be authorized by the aeronautical authorities of Canada.
