

The editor of volume 11 is John Hilliker, Head of the Historical Section in the Academic Relations Division, External Affairs and International Trade Canada.

Documents on Canadian External Relations is a continuing series containing the most important documents on the development of Canadian foreign policy. Since volume 12 (1946) has already been published, the series is now complete for the years between 1909, when the Department of External Affairs was founded, and 1946. Further volumes dealing with the years after 1946 will appear at approximately annual intervals.

Documents on Canadian External Relations, volume 11, is available from the Canadian Government Publishing Centre, Ottawa, Ontario, K1A 0S9, catalogue number code E2-39-1990-11. The price is $95.00 ($114.00 outside Canada).
