

Government—Con.

Cabinet

- Expansion of, 2288-90, 2596-97
- Interest in private bills, 2011. See also references in discussion on Alberta Natural Gas Company Bill; Pipe Lines Bills; Prairie Transmission Lines Limited Bill
- Is directly responsible to elected representatives of the people, reference of Mr. Noseworthy, 1742
- Justice minister. See under this title, Justice minister
- Minister from Alberta, 2287, 2605
- Minister who loses confidence of parliament should resign, 2165, 2986-88, 2990-92
- Motor car allowance provided by statute, 2605-06
- Placing more power in hands of Minister of Trade and Commerce, reference of Mr. Knowles, 2547-50
- Secrecy, 2220
- Contracts, fair wage clause, 2390-2678-79
  - Applicability of provincial legislation, qu. (Mr. Knowles), 2701
- Delegated authority. See under this title, Ministerial Powers
- Democratic principle is to have a majority and not a minority determine what the House of Commons will do, 2001
- Departmental reports, delay in providing, 2823
- Departments, amalgamation of suggested, 2288
  - Annual reports, publishing of, 2589-90
  - More numerous than in wartime, 2288
  - Resources and Technical Development and Mines and Technical Surveys departments should be under one minister, 2291, 2584-85, 2590-91
  - Reorganization of needed, 2289
  - Screening of, 1975-84, 2851-52
    - Cabinet directive of March 5, 1948, 2178-79
- Disregard of parliamentary legislation by, 1741-42
- Economy, policy of suggested, 1022
- Employees, no reduction in number of, 2292-93
- Executive taking over powers of parliament, 147
- Expenditures in relation to national income, 1021-22
  - Insufficient examination of. See debate on Supply Bill (2)
  - Lack of control over, Durell on, 1155
- Infringement of rights of parliament by, 1506-08

Government—Con.

Justice minister

- Appointments since June 30, 1948, qu. (Mr. Knowles), 2326
- Breaking law, 2065-66
- Duties of, 2123
- Has put himself in contempt of the law of parliament, 2164
  - Should resign, 2165, 2986-88, 2990-92
- "Law-breaking ministers", article in Saturday Night on non-publication of flour milling industry report, 2163
- Legislative powers, delegation of, 147
- Majority
  - "A great trust and a great responsibility", 33-34
  - Danger of abuse of power. See references in debate on Address in Reply
- Ministerial powers, committee on suggested, 147, 927-28
- Ministry of youth, reference of Mr. Ferrie, 329
- Motions of want of confidence or censure. See House of Commons, Motions, want of confidence or censure
- New departments. See also Department of Citizenship and Immigration Bill; Department of Mines and Technical Surveys Bill; Department of Resources and Development Bill
  - And departments affected by change, number of employees, 2298
- Citizenship, Immigration and Indian Affairs department, title suggested, 2604-05
  - Cumbersome names, 2283
  - Duplicating work of provinces, 2584-97
- Employees
  - Appointment by civil service commission, 2603-04
  - Estimated number of employees, 2299
  - Functional charts, request for, 2300
  - Functions transferred to, 2299
  - Salaries for ministers of, 2297-2300. See also Salaries Act Amendment Bill
  - Setting up of, remarks of Mr. Adamson, 2598-99
  - Technical men as ministers of, suggested, 2294-95
  - Unnecessary number of, 2293
- Officials, responsibility under the law, Dicey on, 2987
- Opposition parties in. See Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation; Opposition; Progressive-Conservative Party; Social Credit Party
- Overlapping departments. See references in debate on Department of Resources and Development Bill
- Parliamentary assistants. See that title