

- National Policy first mooted in the Commons by Macdonald, ii. 395 ; inaugurated, 410.
- Navy Island occupied by Mackenzie in 1838, ii. 137.
- Nelson, Robert, plans the second L. C. rebellion, ii. 85 ; establishes himself at Napierville, 91 ; is defeated at Odelltown and flies, 96.
- Nelson, Wolford, becomes a leader in the L. C. rebellion and defeats Gore at St. Denis, ii. 68 ; is captured and sent to Bermuda, 79 ; returned for Richelieu, 206.
- New Brunswick becomes a separate province in 1784, i. 267 ; enters the Dominion, ii. 291 ; passes a free-school bill, 368.
- Newfoundland discovered by Cabot in 1497, i. 2.
- New Orleans, Battle of, and defeat of British, i. 381.
- New York to be captured—scheme of De Callieres, i. 81.
- Niagara, or Newark, becomes the seat of Government in 1792, i. 294 ; burned by McClure, 368.
- Nova Scotia ceded to Great Britain in 1713, i. 105 ; Halifax founded by Cornwallis, 122 ; enters the Dom., ii. 294 ; better terms to, 327-8, 330.
- North-West Fur Company founded in 1783, ii. 337 ; its cruel policy, 340 ; amalgamated with Hudsons Bay Company, 345.
- North-West Territories from 1760 to 1869, ii. 333.
- O'Brien, William, transfers his agitation from Ireland to Canada, ii. 486.
- Odelltown, battle of in 1838, and end of the second L. C. rebellion, ii. 93.
- Ogdensburg first founded in 1751, i. 128 ; is captured by the British, 350.
- One Hundred Associates, Company of, formed, i. 22.
- Onondaga Mission founded, i. 34 ; the flight back to Canada, 37.
- Orange Society introduced into Canada by O. R. Gowan, i. 454.
- Oswego captured by Montcalm, i. 156.
- Osgoode, William, first chief justice of U. C., i. 294.
- Ottawa selected as the seat of government in 1858, ii. 249.
- Otter, Lieut.-Col., commands the force for the relief of Battleford, ii. 468 ; his march thither, 469 ; fights Foundmaker at Cut Knife Creek, 471.
- Pacific Railway Scandal in 1872, ii. 378 ; report of Royal Commission, 385 ; surveys completed, 402 ; new policy touching, 411 ; let to existing company, 417 ; its North-West monopoly abolished, 489.
- Papineau, Louis J., enters public life, i. 397 ; forments rebellion, ii. 44 ; his character, 63 ; takes flight, 67 ; pardoned and elected for St. Maurice, ii. 206 ; again forments trouble, 209.
- Parliament House at Montreal burned by a mob, ii. 213.
- Parliament, first of L. C., i. 272 ; first of U. C., 298 ; first of the Union, ii. 173 ; first of the Dominion, 319.
- Pepperell, William, captures Louisburg, i. 117.
- Perry, Commodore, his victory on Lake Erie, i. 362.
- Phips, Sir William, defeated at Quebec, i. 89.
- Pitt, William, plans the conquest of Canada, i. 161.
- Plattsburg captured, i. 361 ; Prevosts' retreat from before, 394.
- Plessis, Bishop, receives a salary from the British Gov., i. 402.
- Pontiac, conspiracy of, i. 222 ; prepares for war, 224 ; his plans, 226 ; besieges Detroit, 227 ; defeats Dalzell at Bloody Run, 234 ; abandons the siege, 240 ; his tragic death, 242.
- Pontgrave, the associate of Samuel Champlain, i. 9.
- Powell, Judge, his bad treatment of Gourlay, 436-8.
- Poutrincourt founds a settlement in Nova Scotia, note, i. 24.
- Powell, John, shoots the insurgent chief Anderson, ii. 128.
- Prescott, General, becomes Gov.-Gen. in 1796, i. 275 ; is recalled, 278.
- Prevost, Sir George, appointed Gov.-Gen. in 1811, i. 334 ; mistake at Sackett's Harbour, 355 ; fails to capture Plattsburg, 393 ; is recalled and dies in England, 399.
- Prince Edward Island becomes a separate province in 1770, i. 267 ; enters the Dom. in 1873, ii. 377.
- Prince, Colonel, defeats the Patriots near Sandwich, ii. 156.
- Prince of Wales in Canada, his grand reception, ii. 257.