

Couleuvre, 186. Quitted by a part of his troops, 157. Attacks the French suddenly, 140. He accedes to a treaty, 144. Is seized and sent to France, 145. Dies at Besançon, 147. Insinuation against his character by Dessalines, 160.

Trigge, general, reduces Surinam, iv. 108. Takes the Danish and Swedish colonies and St. Martin's, 113.

Trinidad, why so named by Columbus, i. 71. Situation and size of, iv. 288. Climate of, 289. Storms in, 290. Mountains and harbours of, 291. Soil of, 292. Natural productions of, 293. Pitch lake in, 294. Volcanic traces in, 295. History of, 297. Population of, 302, and v. Appendix, 13.

——— attacked by Sir Ralph Abercromby, iv. 82. Spaniards destroy their fleet and surrender the island, 83.

———, intended insurrection in, v. 96.

———, Mr. Canning's motion to stop the import of slaves into, iv. 425.

———, motion to introduce British laws into, negatived, iv. 451.

———, registry of slaves introduced into, iv. 462.

Tyuston, Sir W. put to death at Barbadoes, i. 325.

Turk's islands, salt produced at the, iv. 225.

U.

Ulloa, his description of the varieties of people of colour, ii. 19. Testimony of, in favour of mulatto women, 23.

Uring, captain, attempts to form a settlement in St. Vincent, i. 415.

V.

Vaughan, lord, appointed governor of Jamaica, iii. 295.

———, Mr. observations on the cultivation of coffee in St. Domingo, ii. 353.

Vegetable fly, description of the, i. 440.

Venables, his harshness to the Spanish planters of Jamaica, i. 199.

Veneral disease, said by Oviedo to be brought from the West Indies, i. 77.

Venus, the planet, brilliancy of, in the West Indies, i. 10.

Vestries, in Jamaica, composition and powers of, i. 265.

Vienna, congress of, proceedings of the, relative to the slave trade, iv. 472.

Vigie, in St. Lucia, failure of attacks upon the, iv. 61, 271.