

CHAPTER IV.

	Page.
JUVENILE REFORMATORIES	353-363
Enumeration of institutions of this class visited	353
Fourteen papers received, containing answers to our interrogatories.....	353
These printed in full in the appendix.....	353
The juvenile reformatories the best organised and best conducted of our institutions looking to the prevention of crime	354
Massachusetts bears the palm, and of her reformatories the State Industrial School for Girls stands preëminent	354
Nautical reform school of Massachusetts conducted in two ships	355
The character, special object, and gratifying success of the school-ships.....	355
New York needs a similar institution.....	360
Its importance to the cultivation of seamanship.....	360
Lieut. Commander Luce's opinion on this subject	361
Opinion of Gen. E. L. Molineaux.....	362
New York should at once organise a school-ship, and add to the number as occasion requires	362
Reformatories should be greatly increased in number	363
The family principle preferred.....	363
Parents should be compelled by law to contribute to the support of their children in these institutions	363

Appendix.

I. REPLIES OF EX-GOVERNORS ON THE PARDONING POWER	365-367
Question I.....	365
Answer by Chief Justice Chase, of Ohio.....	365
do Hon. Wm. W. Ellsworth, of Connecticut.....	366
do Hon. A. H. Holley, of Connecticut.....	366
do Hon. Israel Washburne, of Maine	366
do Hon. Samuel Wells, of Maine.....	366
do Hon. W. L. Greenly, of Michigan	367
do Hon. John A. King, of New York.....	367
do Hon. Wm. F. Johnson, of Pennsylvania.....	367
Question II.....	368
Answer by Chief Justice Chase.....	368
do Hon. A. H. Holley	369
do Hon. Israel Washburne	369
do Hon. Samuel Wells.....	369
do Hon. W. S. Greenly.....	369
do Hon. John A. King.....	370
do Hon. Wm. F. Johnson	370
Question III.....	370
Answer by Chief Justice Chase	370
do Hon. A. H. Holley	371
do Hon. Israel Washburne.....	371