

the number is dat now in oops sent to t they are destined hey are reluctar heir officers and posely visit the b a holy war. Th are unavailing iers to enthusia sion which was he Dardanelles fro thru Constantinoph of Germans. German officers has an extent that over jelly, and

cause

y the

the 20 15.

r

Fruit

peen murdered. Many realize that their led. Enver Pasha's reatened. Advocates are not considered oung Turks are now ing and e exile." hoarding

For Sale. 165 feet x 132 feet Car line passes pro-ms. Box 48, world. 12

Yonge street, little mits. Small payment, x 49, World. 12 ate From the Soil Richmond street, bearer to a copy OLL." By mail add 0 cents in Canada. ed rell Reserved. UANNA ED UT PARTS OVER cut and denounce the German Empire as an outlaw from the human race. "William of Orange fought Louis XIV. and his militarism, and Orange-men are fighting for the same cause coday. Formerly they fought for the Prince of Orange, but today they are fighting for the 'Prince of Peace,' for this is truly a holy war." "We are not faultless, but there is no hand of men in Canada who are more loyal to their principles than the Orangemen," said Bro. H. C. Horken. "There never was a time Novel Feature of Loan.

E

Es

"There never was a time when the Orange organization loomed as big as it does today." "Our principles are freedom of conscience and freedom of speech. We have been fighting for these principles for 500 years, since the time John Huss was put to death because he claimed the right of free con-"That Orangemen will live up to their principles in Canada is fully demonstrated today. "There is such a large fixture of Protestantism in Canada that it keeps British flag flying for freedom, and it must grow with the country." "If Orangemen remain true to their principles we will have proper legis.

ation and government, and it rests with us to do our duty." Doing Their Share. "There may be some remarks Doing Their Share. "There may be some remarks passed on the street today that a good many of us should be at the front. but you must realize that 25 per cent. of the soldiers now at the front are Orangemen, and the end is not yet," said Bro. Rev. J. E. Powell. "There is not a man who walked with us to-day who would hesitate one mo-ment to shoulder a musket, even as our men rallied around William of Orange in 1690. "Ninety per cent. of the fighting men now are Protestants, and that does not leave much for the opposition to blow about."

From Newfoundland.

We have a great number of our boys at the front now, and they have ac-quitted themselves admirably. at the front now, and they have ac-quitted themselves admirably. "There were 8000 Orangemen in the first contingent, and that is something to be proud of. "Those who are not in the celebra tion are at home with the blinds down, afraid to look upon the great demonstration that we are 'making.' "We're From Canada" was played during the march by the bands of the Deletit Superior to Highlanders and 12th York Rangers.

STURGEON FALLS HAD BIG DAY.

Special to The Toronto World. STURGEON FALLS, July 12.-The Orangemen of Nipissing district cele-brated the "glorious 12th" in a fitting manner. Over twenty lodges took part in "the walk," which was of the largest ever held in the district. Patriotic speeches were delivered by prominent citizens. Party airs were eliminated.

WARD FOUR'S BIG PICNIC.

Ward Four Liberal-Conservative Asso ation will hold their 7th annual picnic Queenston Heights on July 28. A ne program of sports will be arranged he program of sports will be arranged id an orchestra will accompany the irty. The association is raising a sub-ription to buy a machine gun. The of-f was communicated to Major-General am Hughes who has stated that he ould be greatly pleased to receive it. and London rate has been accepted as a stanjoyed by all. Special excursions were run over the M.C.R. and W.E. and L.S., bringing lodges from Windsor, Detroit and intermediate stations The visitors were estimated at about 10,000 people.

The various lodges paraded thru

Novel Feature of Loan. One of the most novel features about this huge loan is the unusual means the government adopted to exploit it, includthis huge loan is the unusual means the government adopted to exploit it, includ-ing huge advertisements in the daily papers, great spreads of alluring bill-board announcements, distribution of hand bills, popular concerts and free meetings at the Guildhall with such star attractions as Premier Asquith and S. Leckle, Leamington; Rev. E. R. Ebersole, Leamington; P.M.W.G.R. of the BlackPreceptory M. Thompson;; Past R.W.G.M. of Alberta A. C. A. Bonar Law. Even the time for the loan was rather adroitly chosen, at the beginning of July, just as the Briton is casting up his half-yearly accounts run-ning from January to June 30. This is the time norther was a start of the start o Scratch, and others.

The following cash prizes were awarded: Ten dollars for the best fife and the time people run over their earn-ings and spendings for the last six months, and make up their minds about what they can invest during the coming drum band-Awarded to the International Fife and Drum Organization of Windsor and Detroit. Ten dollars for the best 12-piece, or months. Government Loses Thereby. One of the strange features of this ap-peal for the working people's savings is that the government will take money out of one of its pockets and put it in anmore, brass band-Won by Citizens Band of Leamington. . Ten dollars for the best uniformed lodge-Award held, pending meeting of the committee. Ten dollars for the best uniformed ladies' lodge-Won by Victoria Lodge of Windsor Five dollars for the oldest Orangeman in parade—Won by Daniel Lowe, who is 94 years of age, and been an Orangeman for 75 years.

Men's swimimng contest-Won by Alex McIntosh. Ladies' swimming contest-Won by Miss Elsie Ford of Leamington. Boys' swimming contest—Won by Orlie Gormley of Leamington.

Depresses U. S. Industrials. The raising of the big loan has had its effect on all other securities, including the American, Japanese, Russian, Argen-"As long as you continue to follow Bro. H. C. Hocken as your standard you will all be loyal Orangemen. I am from Newfoundland, Britain's first born, and we are loyal Orange-men I can tell you," said Rt. W. Bro. John Puddester, who wanted to raise money for the war loan. American industrials and tailway stocks have also felt the same pressure on the withdrawal of money for by the provided states of the sector of the

THREATEN TO STRIK

Painful Surprise to Government.

quit work next Thursday.

many hours.

succeed.

Special to The Toronto World. BARRIE, July 12. - With 20,000 visitors in town, Barrie had the biggest Orange celebration ever held in this county. Special trains brought the crowds from all directions, as far south as Aurora and as far north as Ebacebridge, and including large deputations from Collingwood, Meaford Midland and Orillia, and all intermediate stations. One lodge from Kil-worthy won the prize for coming the miles. CARDIFF, July 13 .- A special con ference of the South Wales Miners' Federation has passed a resolution announcing that unless the mine ownlocal ers grant the full demands of the men for a new wage agreement they will This decision, which affects 42,000 miners, was adopted after the delegates had debated the question for

This turn of affairs has caused surlain, and others. prise to the government concillators, who besieved that their efforts to ef-

Lodges were present from New Lowell, Thornbury, Heathcote, Allis-ton, Elmgrove, Everett, Ruskview, Banda. Mount Pleasant, Beeton, Rich Hill, Tottenham, Thompsonville, Stayner, Glencairn and the local O.YB. and Orange lodges, in all about 1500 in the parade, including many brass bands.

The various lodges paraded thru the principal streets in the town dur-ing the forencon, the bands discour-ing fine music, and at one o'clock in the afternoon the lodges joined in one big procession of 12,000 to Sea Cliff Park, where they put thru a program of athletic sports. Addresses of wel-come were delivered by Mayor Lewis Wigle, P.M.W., Chaplain Rev. J. W. Hodgins, Stratford; W.D.M. Rev. J. S. Leckle, Leamington; Rev. E. R.

Glorious Twelfth at Barriefield Camp Observed as National Holiday.

Special to The Toronto World. KINGSTON, Ont., July 12. - The "glorious 12th" in Barriefield Camp was observed as if that day was a national holiday. It is stated that when Lieut.-Col. Munroe, in command of the 8th C.M.R., had his regiment paraded be-8th fore him this morning and asked all Orangemen to step forward, like one man the regiment advanced two paces. Every man who had not been found guilty of misdeameanor during the present month was given a holiday, of the crew of the American barque Normandy, which has arrived here from Gulfport. Miss. and many attended the services at The story is that the Normandy was RECORD CROWD ATTENDS Belleville and Gananoque. Ex-Ald Joseph Tait of Kingston Ex-Ald Joseph Tait of Kingston was the oldest Orangeman at the Gananoque celebration. Today he celebrated the 70th anniversary of his joining the order, and in that time he only missed attending one celebration the southeast coast of Ireland, Friday night. The captain was called aboard the submarine, where his papers were examined and found to show that the only missed attending one celebration held in this district. He will be 90 ship was chartered by an American years old in a few weeks. firm January 5.

Thomas A. Edison Will Head Board of Experts for Navy to Tackle Problem.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., July 12.-Thos. A: Edison has accepted an invitation from Secretary Daniels to bead an advisory board of civilian in-development to be created in the navy department. His acceptance will go forward at once to Washington. Mr. Daniels' idea of utilizing the inventive genius of Americans in and out of the military and naval service J. W. Edwards, M.P. for Frontenac; to meet conditions of warfare shown H. B. Morphy, K.C., M.P, deputy grand in the conflict on land and sea in H. B. Morphy, K.C., M.F. deputy grand master of British North America; J. L. Hughes of Toronto, W. A. Boys, K.C., M.P.; J. I. Hartt, M.L.A.; Alex Ferguson, M.P.; A. B. Thompson, M.P.; Rev. Mr. Spencer, grand chapin, and others. "That 20,000 Orangemen are at the laid before the investigators, the sec-

LONDON, July 13. — The govern-ment expects to introduce in parlia-ment this week a bill to regulate the price of coal.

IMPREGNABLE LINE Orders.

LIVERPOOL, July 13.-How an Successful Completion of Of American ship is alleged to have been used as a shield by a German subfensive South of Lublin marine for the sinking of another vessel is the story related by members Announced.

TAKE UP POSITIONS

stopped by a German submarine 60 miles southwest of Tuskar Rock, off Violent Cannonade and Outpost Engagements Reported From Przasnysz.

Acted as Shield. The captain of the barque, it was as-serted, was allowed to return to the Normandy, but under the threat that his ship would be destroyed unless he stood by and obeyed orders. These orders, it was stated, were that he was to act as a shield for the submarine which lay around the side of the barque, hiding itself from an ap-proaching vessel. Acted as Shield. Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, July 12.—The 'Russian troops in the Lublin region have completely succeeded in the offensive operations assigned to them of a week ago, and, having gained importan ago, and, naving same up posi-successes, they have taken up positions on the heights on the right bank of the Urzendooka River, as ordered by the commander-in-chief. Grand Duke Nicholas. In this operation the This vessel proved to be the Rus-This vessel proved to be the Rus-sian steamer Leo. Presently the around the bow of the Normandy, so the story went, and ten minutes later the crew of the Normandy saw the Leo blown up. Twenty-five persons were on hoard

Twenty-five persons were on board, within 200 yards of the Muscovite Twenty-five persons were on board, within 200 yards of the musculated of whom eleven were drowned, in-cluding three stewardesses. Those opened a terrible fire which speedily saved included three Americans, Walter Emery, of North Carolina; Harry and wounded men on the ground in his hasty flight. Hold Zlota Lipa Lines Still. Clark of Sierra, and Harry Whitney of Camden, N. J. Rescue Not Possible.

Hold Zlota Lipa Lines Still. The Russians continue to hold the Zlota Lipa front. with success, re-pulsing an attack near Markoff (Vil-lage. Another attack delivered near Koropetz Village on the Dniester River All these three men when interview. ed corroborated the above story. They said no opportunity was given those on board the Leo for saving life. The Leo was bound from Philadelphia for Manchester with a general cargo. The captain of the Normandy told the survivors that he would have liked to have signaled their danger to them, but that he dared not do so because his uninsured ship would then have Przasnysz and Ednorjetz, the only front which affords good facilities for an ad-

The steamer Leo sailed from Phi'a-delphia June 25 for Leith under com-mand of Capt. Jerstrom. She was a vessel of 2324 tons, and belonged in Heisingfors. She was built in 1995.

Libeled King George.
J. St. Cullen, alias S. H. Herbert, was arrested in Touch yeaterated.
James, who graduated from Harvard mathembard in the start of the and the British mathembard in the start of the and the British mathembard in the start of the and the British mathembard in the start of the and the British mathembard in the start of the and the British mathembard in the start of the and the British mathembard in the start of the and the British mathembard in the start of the s

one would recognize gallant Cana-dians in their billets in French villages these warm summer days by the way they have their sleeves rolid up and their shirts open at the throat as they would at home. "I guess they're finding we can do our bit," is the sentiment of the Oana-dians.

British Ambassador, Was in Morgan Automobile

at Time.

SAVED BY CHAUFFEUR

Six Men, Who Had Motor Car, Forced to Leap

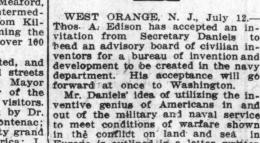

Aside.

1 - 7.

NEW YORK, July 12. - Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador. was riding in an automobile which six men attempted to hold up on the night following Frank Holt's attack on J. P. Morgan, on July 3 last, it was revealed here tonight as a result of the complaint made to the police. James Patterson, a chauffeur for Mr. Morgan, who was driving the car, notified the authorities, the police say. The British ambassador had left the

was also repulsed and the Russian patrols successfully carried out a series of reconnaisances on the Upper Nume and Zlota Lipa Rivers. Cannonade at Przasnysz. Morgan home in Gien Cove for a visit to the home of Willard D. Straight, in Greenvale, Long Island, when the men who had an automobile suddenly The Germans have begun a violent cannonade on the front between appeared in the road, and, according to the police, attempted to stop the Morgan machine. Their machine stood at the roadside. Patterson, however, vance on Warsaw. Outpost engage-ments in this sector are also reported Lively engagements are reported on the Bobr and Narew fronts and an artillery duel between German bat-teries and Ossowetz has been renewed. increased his speed and caused the men to jump aside. In an instant they were in their car and dashing in pursuit of the ambassador, but were easily who besieved that their efforts to ef-front fighting side by side with men owners and the miners were likely to in the common cause of liberty, was with Mr. Edison's wonderful brain to

