

- Kendall, Amos, quoted, 156
 Kentucky, organized as county of Virginia, 49; frontier settlers in, 172
 Keokuk, Indian chief, 198, 200, 204
 Knox, William, British Under-Secretary for the Colonies, 22
- Lacède, Pierre, 32
 La Mothe-Cadillac, Antoine de, founds Detroit (1701), 2
 La Salle, René-Robert Cavelier, Sieur de, 2
 Laulewasikaw, "Prophet," Brother of Tecumseh, 135, 147-48
 Laurens, Henry, 72
 Le Bœuf, Fort, 14
 Lee, "Light-Horse Harry," 89
 Leech Lake, Pike reaches, 190
 Leopard-Chesapeake affair, 138
 Lexington (Ky.), aspires to be "Athens of the West," 171
 Lincoln, Abraham, 184-88, 201
 Lincoln, Thomas, father of Abraham, 185
 Loftus, Major, 33
 "Long Knives," 101
 Los-anti-ville, 82; see also Cincinnati
 Louisiana Purchase, 161, 190
 Louisville (Ky.), education in, 171
- McAdam, John, devises road construction, 165-66
 Mackinac, Fort, 152, 153
 Malden, Fort, 153
 Marietta (O.), founded, 81; settlers from New England, 99
 Marquette, Jacques, Jesuit missionary, 189
 Mason, George, 51
 Massac, Fort, 52
 Maysville Road Bill (1830), 178
 Ménard des Grosseilliers, 189
- Miami, Fort, 88, 92
 Michilimackinac, 95
 Minnesota organized as Territory (1849), 208
 Mississippi, Georgians in, 173
 Mississippi Valley, 24-25
 Missouri, population of Territory (1812-18), 161-62; frontier settlers in, 173
 Monroe, Fortress, 204
 Montreal, fall of (1760), 1
- National Road, see Cumberland Road
 New England, westward migration from, 99, 175-77
 New Orleans, Indians seek equipment at, 18; Jackson's victory, 159
 New Orleans, The, first steamboat in West, 168
 Niagara, council with Indians at, 17
 Northwest Territory, extent of, 1-2; French settlements, 2; Franklin advises British to retain, 20; ignorance of country, 21-22; questions of settlement and government, 22 et seq.; settlement, 37 et seq.; 79-82; Continental Congress claims, 71; Treaty of Paris gives to U. S., 75; state claims yield to nation, 77; migration to, 97 et seq.; character of country, 110-12; pioneer life, 112 et seq.; in War of 1812, 151 et seq.; loses frontier character, 162; religion, 170; education, 170-71; sectionalism, 173-74; Southern influence, 176-77; national issues, 178-79; form of government, 179-80; slavery, 180-84; explorations upon upper Mississippi, 189-91; furtrade, 191-93; lead-mining, 194-95; after Black Hawk War, 205-06; Indian treaties, 206-08; bibliography,