

SUPPLEMENT

TO REV. DR. SCADDING'S

STORY OF CASTLE FRANK,

TORONTO.

Since the appearance of my "Story of Castle Frank, Toronto," in the Canadian Magazine of June, 1895, p. 155. I have received from Mrs. Simcoe, of Wolford, a letter containing matter which ought to be embodied in or appended to that narrative.

"As I know," Mrs. Simcoe writes, "you take such interest in all concerning the Simcoe family, I will tell you of an incident. When General Simcoe was in command of the Western district his aide-de-camp was Colonel Coleridge, of Heath's
