Note and Comment

Rev. A. F. (Biddy) Barr is in the city and will attent to-day is game to see his old team tear 'em up. The former Varsity leader did not hesitate to give an opinion. Parkdale's game of a year ago cannot be taken as a line; for then the college champions had passed the climax and were lagged after trouncing Ottawa the week before, but to-day they will just keep themselves on edge and should win as they like.

The only betting on to-day's game is that the O.R.F.U. champions will make a better showing against Varsity than will the Tigers next Saturday.

Teddy Marriott saw T.A.A.C. defeat Dundas and considered himself lucky to land the hat he bet on the result. Continuing his speculative instinct, Teddy and a Toronto party visited the German and Cory,

The following players of the Varsity II. team are requested to be on mand: Dixon, may hard, Call, Thompson (Bob), Founds, Bed, Carron, Leonard, Kingstone, Clark, Criass, Laloie, Park, Kennedy, Greene, German and Cory,

The following players of the Varsity II. team are requested to be at the Union station at 8.1o o'cock snarp this morning, to leave for Peterboro, where the Willing at 1 to 1, tried at 8 to 5, and, to make a long story short, seat the century and a half hack yesterday with the advice, nothing doing, which tells more emphatically than, eloquently how Seppl is progressing with the Bengall.

The season was remarkable for the great advance in effectiveness on the part of the bowlers. The team was strengthened by the presence of W. Whitaker, the ex-Mimico star. Fred Button won the distinction of being the best bowler in the City League. Dr. Bennett again led the batsmen with an average of 19.38 and was also chosen for the interprovincial and the international teams. C. Thetford gets he best bowling average for the season and also the highest individual score, 90.
