LENGTH OF SESSION

STILL INDEFINITE

Government Bills May Delay

Prorogation Ten

Days.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, Oct. 28.—The failure of the commons to get the Grand Trunk bill out of committee yesterday, makes prorogation of parliament this week a practical impossibility. With only two of the twelve clauses of the bill disposed of, consideration of the measure in committee is certain to take up another day or two. The bill cannot reach the senate until the middle of the week, and the debate in the upper house is certain to occupy several days.

Also the attitude of the opposition in the house yesterday suggested the possibility of the Liberals keeping up the fight for a long time, they say that they have no intention of persisting in their opposition to an unreasonable length.

Prohibition Bills Next.

When the railway legislation is finally out of the way in the commons, it is anticipated that the government's prohibition legislation will be proceeded with. There have been rumors for some time that these bills would be dropped for the session, but there has been no official intimation from the government to warrant such an assumption.

The indications all are that they will be proceeded with. The amendments to the Dominion Temperance Act, the more important of the two bills, will make provision for a "bone-dry" prohibition in every province following an affirmative vote on a referendum taken on the authorization of a resolution passed by a provincial legislature.

In addition there are a number of government bills of minor importance, but dealt with, so that parliament is not likely to conclude its business before the end of next week.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS

ARE DESERTING PARTY

Paris, Oct. 28.—The split in the Socialist party, arising from the action of the organization in striking from its list the names of deputies who supported the government and voted for the treaty of peace with Germany, appears to be extending to the provinces, according to newspapers here.
Several deputies who are leaving office are joining the deserters.

Members of the striking faction of the Seine department met last evening and decided to separate from the Seine federation and to nominate three or four candidates for election to the chamber of deputies. They would leave the Socialist election, express their views at the polls. All the deputies who are leaving office will be candidates, it is announced.

Kingston Utilities Commission

Is Strong for Sir Adam Beck

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 28.—A message sent to Mayor Church of Toronto by Chairman T. Elliott of the Kingston Utilities Commission urging that Sir Adam Beck be retained as head of the Hydro-Electric Commission was announced by the members of the local committee at their meeting yesterday.
Chairman Elliott was appointed to attend the Hydro meeting to be held in Toronto tomorrow.
