HAMILTON LABOR CANDIDATES

School Trustees. The Labor party of Hamilton, after

The Labor party of Hamilton, arter due consideration, decided to place a number of candidates in the field at the municipal election which takes place on Monday, Jan. 7.

The city council of Hamilton has been run on strict party lines for the last six or seven years, which has not worked to the best advantage of the city. A great number of citizens have become dissatisfied at the way the business of the city has been conductbusiness of the city has been conducted, and have openly declared that there must be a change. In view of these facts, the Labor party has placed twelve candidates for alderplaced twelve candidates for alder-manic honors in the field, who are pledged to support the following plat-

man. As president of the Printing Pressmen's Union he has proven him-self a hard worker in the labor cause. He is also a prominent Knight of Pythias, and at present holds the of-fice of district deputy. If elected, he will be heard from in the future. John Peebles, jeweler, is a strictly independent man, who has subscribed to the Labor platform. He is well known by all classes of people and his chances of election are bright. H. J. Halford has been secretary of the Barbers' Union ever since it was organized. He is also at the present time secretary of the Hamilton Trades and Labor Council, and owing to the manner in which he attends to the du-ties of both offices he is bound to make good in the council if elected He is a staunch supporter of the Labor platform and will be found working in the interest of the people at all times J. A. Williamson, grocer, West Bay-street, is a son of an old labor man who for twenty years was a bridge carpenter on the G. T. R. In his business as a grocer he has proven himself a true friend of the wage-earners. He is outspoken in his views and will sup-port the Labor platform in its entirety. He is also a well-known mem-ber of Red Cross Lodge, K. of P. William Farrar, clothing merchant, Market-square, is a straight-forward business man and has been a friend of labor at all times. He is pledged to the Labor platform and will work in the interest of the citizens if elected.

Ald. T. J. Church, president of the Iron Moulders' Union for a number of years, has been a member of the city council for the past three years and solicits your vote for re-election M. Kennedy, now a merchant on North James-street, was at one time one of the hardest workers in the Knights of Labor, and thru the active part he took in the labor movement at that time was compelled to go into business for himself. William Ryan, flour and feed merchant on Market-square, is an old employe of the G.T.R., and is a man who eserves the right to think for himself, the separate school board, which office he has filled with credit to himself and the people. Ratrick C. McBride is a member of the Iron Moulders' Union and is well known in local labor circles. He is endorsed by the Moulders' Union and the Trades and Labor Council. If elected he will be the right man in William Anderson is a machinist by
