

Neglecting Her Work.

Philadelphia Lady—How many times have you washed down the front steps to-day, Bridget?

(Bridget (guiltily)—Only four times, mum.

Philadelphia Lady (severely)—Bridget, I am surprised! Go and wash them down again, at once.

Confidence Born of Wealth.

She (anxiously)—I am afraid, George, dear, that when you speak to papa he may be very angry.

He (confidently)—I think not, when I show him this (taking a bank book out of his pocket).

She—Oh, George, let me look at it first.

SICK HEADACHE CURED.

Freeport, N.S.,

June 1st, 1887.

A. J. WHITE & Co.

DEAR SIRS,—In repeating my order for one gross of Mother Seigel's Syrup, I beg to say that we find it excellent family medicine, and freely recommend it to our friends, to whom it never fails to give satisfaction. For sick headache and general lassitude it is a Sovereign remedy, and its effects are lasting. The only limitation to its sale is its great curative power; those who use it for a time soon need it no more.

MARY W. HAVEY,

Postmaster of Freeport, N.S.
