YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS BOY ESCAPES FROM ENGINE

Pulled Out Unhurt From Beneath Firebox—Davisville School Examinations.

Toronto Junction, June 29.—Herman McDonald, a C.P.R. call boy, living at 71 East Annet-street, had a miraculous escape from death this morning. He was running across the tracks in the C.P.R. yards when he stumbled and fell between the rails in front of a yard engine. The engine stopped the engine when the boy underneath was within a few inches of the ash box. The boy was dragged out, none the worse for his mishap.

Mrs. (Rev.) Wm. Patterson of Philadelphia and her mother, Mrs. (Rev.) Miss Rhoda Haggas.

The executive committee met tonight, Councilor Armstrong presiding. The reports of the property and works committees were adopted. The Union Stock Yards, thru Secretary Donnelly, purchased that part of the old belt line property, in Toronto Junction, offering to pay the taxes standing against it, which was to be considered as payment in full. Referring to the town solicitor, A. Lane, in the rear of 4 houses on the west side of Pacific-avenue, south of Annet-street, has neither ingress nor egress, and Messrs. Springfield, Zanzavitz and Irwin addressed the committee, explaining that they had offered the owner of the lot a grant of a strip of the rear of his lot, but that he would not accept. They asked council to take a reasonable price for a strip of the rear of his lot, but that he would not accept. They asked council to appropriate to pay all expenses. An agreement will be prepared.

Keller & Co. 144 Yonge St. Upland.

Shadford, Surrey, Eng., was solemnized at St. James' Church, Humber Bay, by the rector, Canon Treymayne. The bride was given away by her brother, George S. Brown, and wore an ivory voile over taffeta, with tulle veil and corsage, and carried a bouquet of daisies. The bridesmaid, Miss Irene Charles, wore white muslin and carried daisies. Rev. A. W. H. Francis of Dunville, was best man. The bride's traveling dress was a shepherd plaid, trimmed with white and red piping and green hat. They will reside in Minden.

Thistleton.

The public school inspector for South York, during his half-yearly visit to the public school of this place on June 1, reports to the trustees that school premises, buildings, heating, ventilation, well, shade trees, apparatus, all are approved and in a highly creditable condition. A large percentage of the school attendance promoted at the home of the bride's mother. The bride's traveling dress was a shepherd plaid, trimmed with white and red piping and green hat. They will reside in Minden.

Sarabro Village.

The Washington Methodist Church will hold their annual lawn social in the evening of July 1. Transportation will be provided from Hall Way House each hour, beginning 2.30 p.m. from the Woodbine. Conveyances will meet Toronto passengers for the lawn.

Etobicoke.

Altho the assessment of Etobicoke Township was made under the new regulations this year, the two principal appeals were put in by the G.T.R. Co. and the Niagara Power Co., but the court of revision refused to change the assessment. The Niagara Power Co. has appealed to the county judge, claiming that the steel structures erected every 200 feet across the township for carrying the cables by which the power is transmitted, should not be assessed. A test case will be made.

Islington.

A reception was tendered in the town hall last night to Corporal J. E. L. Straight, son of Treasurer Straight, on his return after four years spent in South Africa. He was presented with a gold chain and locket. J. D. Evans presided, and Dr. Bull of Lambton gave an address. Capt. Straight gave a very interesting account of his experiences abroad. A musical program was given.
