

Two Bible Classes have been recently organized, one for young women, taught by Mrs. A. B. Mackay, and the other for young men, taught by Rev. W. J. Dey. These classes meet every Sabbath afternoon at three o'clock, and all young persons not otherwise engaged should make it a point to attend.

ELECTION OF DEACONS.

In consequence of the election to the eldership of Messrs. Laidlaw and Munderloh, and the removal from the city of Mr. James McGoun, it was found necessary to increase the number of Deacons. The usual steps were taken, and Messrs. D. Wilson, D. T. Fraser, D. Cameron, and Dr. F. W. Kelley were duly elected to that office.

CHURCH PSALMODY.

As in former years, the Court would again acknowledge the services of the Choir, who, under the leadership of Mr. McLaren, are entrusted with this very important part of our worship. Meetings for practice are held every Saturday evening in the School Room.

IN CONCLUSION.

The Court cannot bring this brief statement to a close without referring to the removal by death of two of its oldest members, the late Mr. James Court and the late Mr. James Davison. Mr. Court, in the early history of the Church, filled the position of Superintendent of the Sabbath School, and Mr. James Davison was for a number of years Clerk of the Deacons' Court. Their deep interest in the welfare of the Congregation during the long period of their connection with it, is too well known to require to be more than referred to here. It behoves those of us that remain to emulate their zeal in every good work.

One other name may be mentioned here as having passed away during the year, the late Mr. Edward Mackay.
