HOSPITAL NURSES STRIKE

The Latter Swears.

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 11 .- All the nurses at Victoria Hospital have gone on strike. They are as united in their fight for what they want as any labor union could be. They have given the trustees of the hospital two weeks in which to obtain the services of another matron, and in the event of their not dismissing Miss McCallunt in that time the nurses will walk out in a body. During an inquiry, the $5,000 members of the nursing staff appeared before the trustees and made their .... 3,000 complaint and personally made their ultimatum. The different members of 2,099 the nursing staff charged, among other things, that the matron "employed a cook who would swear at the nurses occasionally," and that their food was not what it ought to be. Miss Mc-Callum was present and defended herself. She expressed herself as will-
