

"Leave No Tree In France Standing!"

(German Official Edict.)

Wherever the Hun has gone, there he has left wanton, needless desolation. Towns and villages have been sacked and burned, cathedrals destroyed, even the unoffending trees felled to earth in his diabolic purpose to create a desert where the labor of centuries had made the land to smile. This is not war, but the hellish instinct of barbaric vandalism!

We have pledged our men, our money and our resources to overwhelm this ruthless force that hates all progress other than its own. Come forward, Londoners, with your support! Enlist every dollar you can save and spare to this supremely necessary end! No man has done his duty until he has bought all the Victory Bonds he has the cash to pay for and all he can pay for in installments in the months to come.

ANXIETY IS EXPRESSED AS TO RESPONSIBILITY OF NEW GOVT.

London, Nov. 11.—In view of the regular and uncertain position of the new German Government, anxiety is expressed by some London newspapers that difficulties arise to prevent acceptance and enforcement of the Allied armistice terms.

The pleas of some German papers that the Allies ought not to crowd Germany to the wall so hard that she would be unable to establish herself under a democratic government tend to confirm suspicions in some quarters here that the transfer of power to the Socialists really is a subtle device by which the former emperor and the militarists hope to obtain easier terms.

It is intended that if such a scheme

Mrs. J. A. Wallis.

Threw Away Her Crutches

MRS. WALLIS was cured of inflammatory rheumatism ten years ago, and tells in her very interesting letter how cure was discovered. The treatment used was so effective that her system was restored to good condition, and she has had exceptionally good health ever since.

In order that others may have the benefit of her experience she has kindly written this letter and allowed the use of her portrait. Any reader wishing further particulars of her cure will find Mrs. Wallis only too glad to do what she can to help them.

Mrs. J. A. Wallis, 17 House avenue, Brantford, Ont., writes:

"About ten years ago I was troubled with inflammatory rheumatism, and my system was in a generally run-down condition. I tried several doctors here and many different medicines, but received no benefit from any of them. I kept getting worse, and became so bad that I had to use two crutches to get around the house. One day I felt 'all in' and completely discouraged. The baby was sitting on the floor playing with a newspaper. She tore a piece off, and I happened to pick it up. I glanced over it, and my attention was attracted by a letter from some one who had been cured by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I had never tried this remedy, but decided right then to see what it would do for me. While taking the first box I found they were doing me good, as they seemed to put more life into me, so I continued the treatment, using box after box until I had taken 24 boxes. I felt so much better that I did not need any more medicine of any kind, and have not taken any for years. The Nerve Food relieved my rheumatism so I could do without the crutches, and I have enjoyed extra good health ever since. I can heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone suffering from either a run-down condition or inflammatory rheumatism."

This report should convince the most skeptical of the effectiveness of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in enriching the blood, building up the system, and thereby removing the cause of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, locomotor ataxia, paralysis and scores of other diseases which prey upon a run-down condition of the body.

You can obtain Dr. Chase's Nerve Food from any dealer or direct from Edmansons, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. 50c a box, 6 for $2.75. The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, are on every box.

LOYD GEORGE ANNOUNCES SIGNING OF ARMISTICE; ALL FIGHTING ENDED AT 6 O'CLOCK

London, Nov. 11.—It is officially announced that the armistice between the Allies and Germany has been signed. The announcement was made by Premier Lloyd George, who said: "The armistice was signed at 5 o'clock this morning, and hostilities are to cease on all fronts at 11 o'clock today."

London, Nov. 11.—The period given for the evacuation of the left bank of the Rhine by the German forces has been extended by 24 hours, according to a French wireless dispatch received here.

Premier Lloyd George spoke to the cheering and enthusiastic crowds in the streets, saying:

"The war will be over by 11 o'clock. This empire has done a great deal to end the war, and you are now entitled to shout."

A great roar of approval came from the crowd as they pushed each other eagerly to get within hearing distance of the premier, who spoke from the steps of his official residence in Downing street. The crowds had been called from their offices and the streets by the firing of the former air raid signals.

PROUDEST MONARCHS OF HISTORY STRIPPED OF POWER AND FORCED TO FLEE FROM THEIR COUNTRIES

Ten Million Lives Sacrificed in 1,567 Days of the Bloodiest Fighting Ever Known—Crowds in Berlin Rejoice and Sing the Marseillaise.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Associated Press this morning issues the following: After 1,567 days of horror, during which virtually the whole civilized world has been convulsed, the greatest war in history ended this morning at 6 o'clock, Washington time.

Announcement of the tremendous event was made at the state department at the capital at 2:45 o'clock this morning, and in a few seconds was flashed throughout the continent by the Associated Press.

Details of the terms dictated by Marshal Foch on Friday forenoon to the German armistice delegates have not as yet been given out, but it is believed that they are of such a nature as to protect the world from a resumption of the struggle by the Germans. It is assumed that they call for the demobilization of Germany's army, the surrender of part of her fleet and the dismantling of the rest, and the evacuation of occupied portions of France and Belgium and of Alsace-Lorraine. It is probable, also, that Germany has agreed to call home all her troops now in Russia and Rumania.

The terse announcement of the state department did not tell anything of the scene at Marshal Foch's headquarters at the time the armistice was signed. It was stated, however, that at 5 o'clock, Paris time, the signatures of German delegates were affixed to the documents which blasted forever the dreams which embroiled the world in a struggle which has cost, at the very lowest estimate, 10,000,000 lives.

FALLEN MONARCHS.—When the war began the Teutonic alliance was headed by two of the proudest houses in history—the Hohenzollerns and the Hapsburgs. Today William II, of Germany is a fugitive in Holland and Charles I, of Austria, while he may be still in his native country, has been stripped of power and has seen his empire shattered into pieces. Ferdinand of Bulgaria has fled from his country, and Mohammed V, of Turkey, who also joined in the attempt to dominate the world, is dead, slain, it is said, by the hands of an assassin. While the curtain was reeling down on the most stupendous tragedy in mankind's history, events were moving with terrible swiftness in Germany, the nation about which revolved the plot and counter-plot of the drama. Berlin, Leipzig, Stuttgart, Cologne, Hamburg and Frankfurt are in the hands of the revolutionists, who last week raised the red flag at Kiel.

Germany's navy is apparently scattered into disjointed units, each seeking sanctuary in Danish ports or waiting in German harbors for the latest turn of events.

CROWDS SING THE MARSEILLAISE.—Crowds singing the Marseillaise are marching through the streets of automatic Berlin, and a soldiers' and workmen's council has taken over the Government of the empire.

Wurttemberg, Schleswig-Holstein and Hesse Darmstadt have declared themselves independent republics, following the action taken by Bavaria last Friday. Wilhelm II, of Wurttemberg is reported to have abdicated. Saxony is said to be near a like declaration, and the revolutionists are said to be in control at Dresden.

The republic of Poland has served official notice on Austria that Poland has annexed the crownland of Galicia. As the last hours of the mighty combat drew near, British, Belgian and American forces were rapidly pushing the last German troops from France and Belgium. Gen. Pershing's men attacked yesterday over a front of 71 miles from the Meuse southeastward.

ALL SINGERS INVITED TO JOIN MASSES CHOIR IN CELEBRATION

All singers in London are requested by Mayor Somerville to join in forming a great massed choir to lead the peace celebration in Victoria Park today. It is official news of the signing of the armistice, received. All those who attend the Community Chorus are expected to attend this, the first opportunity for a civic service of song. The directors and members of all the city church choirs are particularly invited to assist, also the members of any other singing society will be gladly welcomed. The National Anthem, "O Canada," "God Save the King," "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" and the Doxology will be sung. The military bands will accompany the great choir, and a song of praise and thanksgiving should resound to the very heavens as London pours out its soul in a mighty burst of song.

Space will be reserved adjoining the bandstand for singers, and all are asked to assemble in their respective parts under the banners printed soprano, alto, tenor or bass. It is hoped that those forming the choir will gather at the bandstand at 2:45 p.m., so that all will be in readiness when the procession arrives. London has the reputation of being the first Canadian city to inaugurate a community singing, but this time will be the first opportunity for the general participation in a civic choir by all the citizens. Let London still lead the way.

WOMEN MUNITION WORKERS ARE FIRST CELEBRATORS ON TORONTO STREETS

Sirens and Whistles Awakened the Queen City at 3 a.m.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—Toronto was awakened from its slumbers at 2:55 o'clock this morning. The first flash bulletin that armistice had been signed came through over the Associated Press wires to the newspapers at that hour.

Within a few minutes, many whistles in all parts of the city were blowing full blast. Eaton's big "wild cat" siren awakened the whole city. Toronto citizens rubbed their eyes and could not believe their senses. The newspaper offices were swamped with calls. At a little after three o'clock a procession, mostly of women munition workers, paraded Yonge street, cheering, wildly beating tin pans and blowing whistles. By this time a crowd began to gather all along Yonge street. Motor cars came tearing down street, reckless of all the speed laws, tooting their horns and awakening the entire city. Long distance calls from all parts of the country, assisted in fairly swamping the telephone exchanges with work. The girls worked heroically without any let-up to help give the wonderful tidings to all parts of the waiting, anxious but sleeping province.
