TWO MARES SIED BY ALLENWOOD IN DUEL ON SHORT SHIP

Edwina B. Wins After Five Heats—2:24 Trot of Monday Allowed to Stand.

SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 24.—The five-heat duel between the two Allenwood mares, Edwina B. and Kitty Allenwood, in the 2:20 pace featured today's short ship.

Edwina B. took the deciding heat from the Saginaw-owned mare, and carried away the first two heats handily, but acted badly in the third and got away in rear. Finally when they were in the stretch to start the fourth heat, Edwina B. came strong in the stretch to beat the Abdell for the heat, and then came on in fourth when Edwina B. made a bad break. Montague didn't try after the break in the fourth, saving his horse for the fifth, when he had too much luck for Kitty.

Capt. Heit-Law took the 2:05 pace straight heats in rather slow time, while Frank E. Forbes rounded off with the 2:17 after losing the first to Lapello.

The judges announced that the seventh heat of Monday, in which Allie Gentry beat Upland Brooks in the 2:24 trot, would be allowed to stand, but that Harry Hoffman, driver of the pacing mare, had been fined $50 for not trying.

White Sox Clinch Flag on Joe Jackson's Drive

Naps Lost Anyway, and Make It Easy For Sox—Ruth Breaks Home-Run Record With Twenty-eighth Circuit Smash.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Chicago today won the American League pennant by defeating St. Louis 6 to 3. Joe Jackson's single in the ninth inning was the blow which made so close the victory, which will meet Cincinnati, winners of the National League pennant, on October 1 for the championship of the world.

Chicago played an up-hill game, and it rested with little Dick Kerr to pull the local club through. Kerr started in the same direction and McMullin walked, filling the bases. Weaver fled, catching, tying the score. Jackson then delivered his hit to right center, and sent Liebold home with a run which gave Chicago the championship of the American League.

Cicotte was unsteady, and gave way to a pinch-hitter in the seventh inning. Eddie Murphy, who went in for him, was instrumental in the local scoring two runs, and putting Chicago within a run of tying the visitors. Schalk singled, and Murphy forced him at second. Liebold followed with a single, and Cicotte followed with a single at the plate as Cicotte's Collins' argument resulted in his banishment from the game.

The visitors made their runs off Cicotte. The score: R.H.E.
St. Louis..... 301 000 100-5 13 0
Chicago..... 000 020 200-6 11 0

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Boston Red Sox shut out the Yankees, 4 to 0, here today and then lost a thirteen-inning battle, 2 to 1. The winning run was scored on a three-bagger by Pipp and a sacrifice fly by Pratt.

Ruth broke the home run record of 27 by Ed Williamson in 1884 by driving the ball over the roof of the right field grandstand in the ninth inning of the second game. This tied the score and resulted in a thirteen-inning game. The scores:

ROY MAC AND HAL ABBE WIN AT NORWICH RACES

NORWICH, Sept. 24.—The horse races proved the big attraction of the fair. In the 2:35 trot or pace Roy Mac won in straight heats, but the three horses were close and every heat was a real race. In the 2:15 trot or pace, the spectators had a great run for their money. The first heat, Roy Mac won after a driving finish, but Hal Abbe came back strong and won the next three, only however, after close finishes with Eagle Bars.

AS YOU WERE

THE REDEMPTION. (In four acts and six inhalers.)

Hoarse Gentlemen (vocally disabled in 1915 when Western U. won championship).—Well, I see the team is getting out. Goin' into the game? "Now, I'm usin' years, and I'm through. 'Through,' do you hear that? That game for eight years, and I'm through. 'Through,' do you hear that? Besides there ain't no pensions hanging on the tail of that pastime, and people haven't got any longer memories even for disabled oval-chasers than they have for 'minnie-doggers, and I gotta live. I'm diso-tively through."

Same creaky gentlemen, with same patented conversation starter.—"Well, I see the team is getting out. Little slow and all that, but some good material. Guess there's goin' to be a team after all. Looked kinda bad at first, but—"

"Humph! Whose goin' out?"

"Well, I dunno, some of 'em; but there's—" and that means lots of weight, and—"

and believe you me, none of those boys forget where to tuck a ball; and you remember—"

"Is sure coming back; and say, do you remember that night after we won the game in—" when 45—xvxyzxyzxyz 2222? Oh! Boy! And say—"

(Door slams.)

Act 3 (same place).

Hoarse Person.—"Well I see that—why, what's doin' with the tannery? Goin' to hawk 'em, or—"

"Now! I ain't goin' to hawk 'em. What's think I'm goin' to do with that headpiece, put the muffler on the soup scene in the bean joint with it? I'm goin' to lend that to a guy."

From chorus, that has too much on to look like the real article.—"Lookin' who's here, and without a keeper! Keep your padlocks on your lockers now, gang!"

"Aw, gwan. Lemme see that ball."

And they are drifting back to the game every day. Last night there were over twenty candidates out, going through the program, and by far the best night yet held was last night's affair. Coach Reid announced definitely last night that there would be a game a week from Saturday, but does not say with whom they will be staged. At any rate, the probable line-up will be announced early, and the first run-in ought to show just about where the local O. R. F. U. entry stands.

Does not look as if Beckett was going to consider Fulton for a bout before he has a good try for a match with J. Dempsey. His coming bout with Carpenter won't mean much on this side of the water. The American public has never been much impressed with the Frenchman as a heavy, though when he measured up Willie Lewis in his middleweight days, they sat up and handed him credit as being something more than a dancing master who had wandered into the ring by mistake. Seventeen rounds with McCoarty—who has been down under geographically and financially for so long that he had almost been forgotten—doesn't on the face of it make Beckett look any too good on this side, but at the same time the Briton is given a certain amount of credit for business as well as fighting brains. At any rate, there will be a lot of activity in the heavy ranks during the next few months with Beckett, Fulton, Carpenter and even some touted possibilities.

Connie Mack is devoting the ebbs and flows of the 1919 campaign to putting his school for minors on display and making tough notes in his silbo book for his position in the cellar of the league. It does not seem long ago since pinch-hitter and the heavy-browed Enigma of baseball, the tall one was the feature of all newspapers, and was sitting on the top of the world.

And Pat Moran is being hailed by a forgetful public as the Miracle Man; and a few years the same public will consider it a miracle that he ever was allowed to manage a team.

PHILLIES CELEBRATE BY DROPPING TWO ON LUDERUS DAY

525th Consecutive Game For Veteran Beats Endurance Record—Giants and Braves Divide.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—Brooklyn came behind in the closing innings, and won the first game of today's double header 4 to 1. The second contest was easy for the visitors, 14 to 7. It was "Luderus Day," and between the games the veteran first baseman was presented with diamond stickpin by John Heydler, president of the National League, and with a gold watch by President Baker of the local club. The second game was the 525th successive contest Luderus has played. The presents were given to commemorate his breaking of the major league endurance record. The scores:

SANARDO REPEATING DOES FASTEST HEAT AT GRAND CIRCUIT

Defeat of Grace Direct in Second Duel—Other Races Bring Close Finishes.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 24.—In a program of grand circuit events full of good stakes and in several of them good strong competition, on a good track and with a big crowd looking on, most of the favorites cashed for their backers and no less-shots to speak of went over in the betting.

McGregor the Great won another good trotting stake in the 2:12 Buckeye event from his rival Mariondale. He never was in trouble and today won as he pleased.

In the board of trade 2:05 pace there was much division of opinion about the ability of Sanardo again to defeat Grace Direct, as he did last week, and they were about even favorites. Sanardo won in straight heats, however, in three hard miles. The best time was 2:03 3/4, made in the first heat. This was the fastest mile of the meeting so far.

Murphy also won the Chamber of Commerce 2:08 trot, with Don De Lopez, which he drove for the Geers stable. Hollywood Kate was a big favorite, but she broke in three of the four heats. In the mile she stayed on the trot and her victory was easy.

The 2-year-old trot, the Western Horseman Futurity, had but four starters. Persipco won this event after dropping the first as a heavy, though when he broke. Don J. also took the unfinished 2:17 pace, left over from yesterday.
