My colleagues and I have received the with satisfaction your assurance. of your unabated desire to assist in ful conclusion, and they greatly regret, that you can no longer be directly and officially associated with them in that enterprise.

There are, however, certain facts with which it is essential that the tic should be acquainted in order that they may form a correct appreciation of the events that have lad to this regrettable con-clusion. The first is that your col-leagues were taken completely by surprise by the attitude which you adopted at the labor conference yesterday afternoon. You know that they were in the present circumstances nously opposed to the Stockholm conference, and you had yourself been prepared to agree to an announcement to that effect. Some days ago, and at your suggestion, however, and that of your labor colleagues, it was decided to postpone any such announcement until infter Priday's conference. Friday's conference, Breach of Faith.
