

The following officers were appointed : President, Mrs. DuMoulin ; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Growski, Mrs. E. Blake, Lady Howland and Mrs. Gilmor ; Secretary, Mrs. Greene ; Treasurer, Mrs. Morgan Baldwin.

A Committee was formed to purchase material, cut out and arrange the work.

Canon DuMoulin suggested to the meeting that some struggling rural mission in the Diocese might receive from it a helping hand, mentioning the mission of Washago as one which being still in its infancy, would be glad of any help that the Society could give. He also named a large family in an outlying mission, to whom a box of useful clothing might be sent.

Before the regular meetings were begun, a small sale of work which had been left from a Bazaar of the previous year was held. $218.40 was received, of this $25 was paid, as formerly promised, to Mr. Geo. Gillespie, to assist with the refreshments at the opening of Wycliffe College, the remainder being the proceeds of work done originally for that College, also belonged to them, and so $193.40 was sent to the Treasurer, Mr. W. H. Howland.

It was decided at a meeting held on Feb. 2nd not to hold any bazaar, the ladies agreeing to get what orders for work they could, and also to have the work done laid on the table at our weekly meetings, in the hope of finding purchasers amongst those present. Our financial condition is so modest, that the Treasurer thinks it unnecessary to send in a separate report. From members' fees and special donations $90 have been received ; work sold at the meeting (some small sums yet unpaid) $20.55 ; total $110.55.

$51.50 of this was expended for material, $20 was sent with the box to our clerical friend last week, leaving a balance on hand of $39.05. This box (valued at $75) was packed with all sorts of useful clothing, and all the ladies
