

Social Notes of Interest

Among the passengers on the Montrose, which docked in Montreal on Saturday, were Mrs. George Carter and her little son, Owen, who have been in England for several months visiting Mrs. Carter's former home. They were met at Montreal by Mr. Carter, who accompanied them to St. John yesterday by the C. P. R. They are visiting Mr. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter, Fair Vale, before returning to their home in New York.

Mrs. R. Y. Eaton, of Toronto, who made many friends when visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur N. Carter, and Mr. Carter a few months ago, has sailed for France by the Empress of Scotland. She will remain abroad for six weeks. Miss Helen Camp, financial secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Quebec, is taking her vacation in the city and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Grover Keith, and her aunt, Miss Emma Baker. Miss Camp will visit her parents, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Camp, at Campbellton before resuming her Y. W. C. A. duties. She was made recipient of several lovely gifts at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters in Quebec prior to her departure. Miss Camp is very popular among her associates.

Dr. and Mrs. N. P. Grant, of Woodstock, N. B., and Mr. and Mrs. William L. Kennedy, of Debec, are at the Royal Hotel. Dr. and Mrs. Grant had with them yesterday their daughters, Marion and Margaret, who are attending Netherwood Girls' School, Robbinston.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Timmerman, of Montreal, arrived today to be present at the wedding of their son, Mr. Everett Drinkwater Timmerman, to Miss Muriel Holiday Ford, daughter of Professor and Mrs. J. S. Ford, who are at their summer home at Duck Cove.

NESTLÉ'S The favourite milk of Old England Known in every country the world over. Includes image of a Nestlé's Evaporated Milk can.

The marriage will take place there very informally on Wednesday. Mrs. William E. Lawton and two children, who spent the summer in England and Scotland, returned home yesterday via Montreal. They had a most enjoyable trip.

The Waterloo street Baptist church when a young girl. She leaves, besides her husband, three sons, Arthur B. Medicine Hat, J. Fred and Albin S. W. L. Seely and Mrs. Ross Willet, also of St. John, and Miss Florence Emery, at home. Her brother, Ernest Belmore, resides in Wakefield, Mass., and her sister, Miss Emma Belmore, in this city. The funeral will be held from her late residence Tuesday afternoon, service at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Fernhill cemetery.

DEATHS

H. B. Tovey. A sudden attack of heart trouble struck down H. B. Tovey as he reached his doorway, 116 Winter street, last night. He was returning from a visit to friends in Silver Falls. A doctor was called and found that life was extinct. The shock of his sudden death has greatly distressed his many friends and comes as a terrible grief to his bereaved relatives. Mr. Tovey had been driven in from Silver Falls to Haymarket Square and set out to walk to his own home. He had not complained of any illness. He was 59 years of age and a native of Birmingham, England. He had lived in St. John for 22 years. He conducted a grocery store and was widely known and held in high esteem. He is survived by his wife, one son, Ernest A. Tovey, of St. John, and two daughters in England.

William O'Connor. The many friends of William O'Connor, 64 Adelaide street, will regret to learn of his death, which occurred yesterday morning at 6 o'clock at his home. He was a millwright, employed by Stetson, Cutler & Company during most of his life. He leaves to mourn his wife, five sons, Raymond, Philip, Joseph, Bernard and Clement, all at home; four daughters, Sister Mary Aloysis of the Sisters of Charity, Montreal, Alberta; Mary, Dorothy and Gertrude, at home; one brother, Peter O'Connor, Portland, Me., and two sisters, Mrs. Lawrence O'Neill, of West St. John, and Miss Beatrice O'Connor of this city. Mr. O'Connor was a charter member of the C. M. B. A. branch 184. The funeral will be held from his residence at 8:45 o'clock Tuesday morning for requiem high mass at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. James B. Emery. The death occurred on Sunday of Mrs. Margaret Anne Emery, wife of James B. Emery, 180 Elliott Row. Mrs. Emery was ill but a short time. She was an active member of Central Baptist church and will be greatly missed in its work. She was the eldest daughter of the late Captain John and Mary Belmore and was an earnest worker in the Waterloo street Baptist church when a young girl. She leaves, besides her husband, three sons, Arthur B. Medicine Hat, J. Fred and Albin S. W. L. Seely and Mrs. Ross Willet, also of St. John, and Miss Florence Emery, at home. Her brother, Ernest Belmore, resides in Wakefield, Mass., and her sister, Miss Emma Belmore, in this city. The funeral will be held from her late residence Tuesday afternoon, service at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Fernhill cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. D. S. Harper. From her late residence, Sackville street, Shediac, on last Wednesday afternoon, the funeral of Mrs. D. S. Harper took place. The remains were followed to the grave by a large number of the citizens and visitors who had come to Shediac to join in the last tribute to respect paid to one of the oldest and best loved residents of the community. Autos conveying many beautiful floral tributes sent in loving memory formed part of the long cortege. Service at the house was conducted by Rev. J. A. Ives, pastor of the Methodist congregation, assisted by Rev. Wm. Penna, of Moncton, an old and intimate friend of the late Mrs. Harper and a former pastor of the Methodist Church here. In an impressive address, referred to the sterling character of Mrs. Harper, her long life of service, her kindness of heart, her many virtues, which had endeared her to all who knew her. Members of the church choir, of the town were present and favorite hymns of the deceased, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Son of My Soul" were sung. The pallbearers were—R. C. Tait, Dr. J. C. Webster, Dr. M. A. Sutton, Dr. H. W. Murray, Dr. Jas. White, and J. V. Bourque. Following the service at the cemetery, the casket was lowered into the grave, which, through the kindness of Mr. Gordon Frier, had been lined with ever-green and flowers. The floral offerings from Shediac friends were many and beautiful among them a tribute from the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church, of which Mrs. Harper was honorary president. Among many from other parts to send their tributes were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Talbot, and Mr. and Mrs. D. DeBlais, Harper, Calgary; Miss Theal, and members of Prof. Allen's family, Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Harper, Mrs. A. H. Hanington, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. H. Seely Bell, Moncton; Rev. Thos. Hicks and Mrs. Hicks, Gagetown; Mrs. Chas. Harper and Mrs. Grover Livingston, Gravenhurst; Allen Harper, Bellevue, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Campbell, Sackville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Dean and Douglas Smith, Moncton; Hon. J. P. Byrne and Mrs. Byrne, Bathurst; Mrs. Jas. Byrne and family, Sussex; Mrs. Amasa Weidon, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nickerson, Messrs. H. H. Reid, H. E. Gould, W. S. Culbert, and O. P. Wilbur, Sussex; Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. W. C. Nickerson, (Boston), and Mrs. Jas. Corbet, (Louisiana), at present in Moncton.

FUNERALS

The funeral of little Ronald George Gray, aged 2 years and 2 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Gray, 203 St. James street, West St. John, was held Sunday afternoon from the parents' residence to St. Jude's church. Service was conducted by Rev. J. H. A. Holmes. Interment was in Cedar Hill cemetery.

CROWDS WATCH ORANGE PARADE

The 56th anniversary of the founding of Dominion Loyal Orange Lodge was observed yesterday with a parade at which several sister lodges were present. The procession left the Orange Hall in Simonds street at 2:30 o'clock and marched to Victoria street Baptist church, where service was held. On their return to the hall they were welcomed by George McQueen, worshipful master of the lodge. Harry Selten was general chairman in charge of the affair and C. L. Hamilton acted as secretary.

The church was crowded to capacity and more than 100 were forced to stand during the entire service. George Knight, of the Douglas avenue Christian church, offered prayer. Rev. George B. MacDonald, pastor of the Victoria street Baptist church, led in the services and then preached an eloquent sermon, setting forth the principles of the Orange order, basing his remarks

FUNERAL OF MRS. D. S. HARPER

From her late residence, Sackville street, Shediac, on last Wednesday afternoon, the funeral of Mrs. D. S. Harper took place. The remains were followed to the grave by a large number of the citizens and visitors who had come to Shediac to join in the last tribute to respect paid to one of the oldest and best loved residents of the community. Autos conveying many beautiful floral tributes sent in loving memory formed part of the long cortege. Service at the house was conducted by Rev. J. A. Ives, pastor of the Methodist congregation, assisted by Rev. Wm. Penna, of Moncton, an old and intimate friend of the late Mrs. Harper and a former pastor of the Methodist Church here. In an impressive address, referred to the sterling character of Mrs. Harper, her long life of service, her kindness of heart, her many virtues, which had endeared her to all who knew her. Members of the church choir, of the town were present and favorite hymns of the deceased, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Son of My Soul" were sung. The pallbearers were—R. C. Tait, Dr. J. C. Webster, Dr. M. A. Sutton, Dr. H. W. Murray, Dr. Jas. White, and J. V. Bourque. Following the service at the cemetery, the casket was lowered into the grave, which, through the kindness of Mr. Gordon Frier, had been lined with ever-green and flowers. The floral offerings from Shediac friends were many and beautiful among them a tri-

try two or three - LIFE SAVERS

THE CANDY MINT WITH THE HOLE and they're mouth cooling. Includes image of Life Savers candy.

to Sweeten the breath. always good taste.

Delightfully Fragrant "SALADA" TEA has a pure, fresh flavor beyond compare. Ask for a package today.

Cocoa Bread UNEXCELLED FOR HEALTH Made only by FARNHAM BAKERIES Limited 213 Union St. Phone M 889

60c--No More. It's so simple. A fifteen pound bag of Washing for 60c. Cleaner Washing. Eight water changes. Safer Washing. No rubbing or wringing. And Cheaper. 60c. saves you a lot over every other system, no matter how you figure it. The comfort of it! Wash day changed into a free day. Phone for the rapid service of the New System Laundry CLEANERS—DYERS on I. Samuel, 10-26: "A band of men whom God had touched attached themselves to the person of King Saul." Mr. MacDonald recounted many of the accomplishments of the Orange order here and elsewhere and urged his hear-

How to buy a Fountain Pen

The pen you buy is to act as your constant companion—it is to serve you every day. Soon you will be dependent upon it in all your writing. And there is but one way to make the purchase. Select it as you would any other life companion. Does it carry an ample supply of ink and the proper nib for your particular style? Is it well-balanced and of correct weight? Is it easy to fill? Does the ink flow freely and evenly? Is the pen efficient in every way? Is it made in Canada? Does it carry the name and reputation of a worthy, long established maker? Aim to get the best possible service and value for your money—ask all the questions—make all the comparisons and tests—and the pen you will buy will be a Waterman's. Waterman's Ideal has been the world's leading pen for over 40 years. It leads to-day! Selection and Service at the best Shops.

Waterman's The Ultimate in Pens. Includes Waterman's logo.

Headquarters for Waterman's Pens and Inks J. & A. McMILLAN LIMITED 98 and 100 Prince William Street For Sale by BARNES & CO., LTD. 84 Prince William Street For Sale by E. G. NELSON & CO. 56 King Street

THE STORE OF DYKEMAN'S COMPLETE SATISFACTION ATTENTION HOUSEHOLDERS AND LANDLORDS ANNOUNCING THE GREATEST Wall Paper Sale EVER PUT ON IN THE CITY OF ST. JOHN STARTING TUESDAY ENTIRE STOCK OF 1924 PAPERS MUST BE SOLD IN 6 Days

Polly want a cracker? Certainly if it's McCORMICK'S JERSEY CREAM SODAS. Includes image of a parrot.

How the Madame X Girdle Conceals Big Hips. THE Madame X Reducing Girdle is built upon scientific massage principles which have caused reductions of 5, 10, 15, even 25 pounds. Includes image of a woman wearing the girdle.

A real peach short-cake. Not made with soggy, white flour crust—no mixing of dough, no baking, no kitchen work or worry—just luscious slices of yellow-ripe peaches piled on Shredded Wheat Biscuit and served with cream. Includes image of a peach short-cake.

Shredded Wheat. The Canadian Shredded Wheat Company, Ltd. Niagara Falls, Ontario.