tion Makes Charge re_ Recent Contest.

Information was laid this morning Government was defeated not, as its by Miss Frances P. Alward, acting on supporters claimed, because it increased taxation, not because it had improved the Retail Merchants' Association of the roads, not because it had improved Canada, against Amdurs, Limited, our educationtl system. They were decharging that they did unlawfully, by feated because they had assured the a mode of chance or mixed chance and skill, dispose of one Star automobile on or about June 30, last. The case was set down for preliminary hearing on next Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. W. M. Ryan, representing Barnhill, Sanford and Harrison, is conducting the prosecution and Dr. H. A. Powell, K. C., is acting for the deof the workers.

The charter of the Trades and Labor Council will be draped for thirty days as a token of respect to the late Tr. Colwell.

An amendment to the Canadian Criminal Code, Section 236, passed last year, changed the act to take in skill. Formerly the act provided for conviction only in cases purely of chance but in some cases brought under this section, the element of skill was introduced is a defense and so the act was amended in that particular. The law provides a fine of not more than $2,000 on conviction.

CASE OVER POST HOLES.

Thomas Stephen, a sub-contractor on the civic distribution system, was charged in the Police Court this morning with leaving a dangerous excavation in Exmouth street not protected by covering or fence, on July 25. He pleaded not guilty. Sergeant Spinney said the excavation, which was a post hole, was partly in the street and partly in the sidewalk. To Mr. Stephen he said there had been no men working there at the time. Post holes also had been open on Sunday. Policeman Laird corroborated the evidence of Sergeant Spinney.

Mr. Stephen said he had not been Mr. Stephen said he had not been there himself. His men were doing the work. He called Harold Moore, Fred Gaudet and David Coholan, all of whom were employes of the Stephen Construction Company, engaged in the work of digging post holes. They testified that the hole had been covered and a light placed on it. A fine of $4 was allowed to stand.

EYESTRAIN THE PRINCI PAL CAUSE OF HEADACHES

Some authorities say 90 p. c of all headaches are caused by eyestrain; no authority puts it less than 70 p.c. Leave it your eyes, don't you?

Of the twelve pairs of nerves in the skull, six have some connection with the eye. No wonder the dull ache from eyestrain occurs in any part of the head. So when defective eyes are called upon to do the eye-work required by modern life, the tired ocular muscles set up pain along the nerves connecting with the other parts of the head. A correct pair of glasses gets at the cause. Glasses banish not one headache
