JUDGE NEEDS HELP
Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 31.—It is probable that several judges will have to be named within a few days to assist Mr. Justice Duff in the central court of appeal under the military service act. Appeals to the central appeal court from the decisions of the local or appeal courts have been pouring in for weeks past and indications point to an aggregate of over more than 7,000 or 8,000 cases to be finally adjudicated upon by Mr. Justice Duff. Despite his energy and quickness of decision it will be obviously impossible for him to personally consider a docket of that size unless the work is kept up at the present high pressure of twelve to fourteen hours per day until well on into the summer.

Girls' Conference Is To Be Held

The executive meeting of the New Brunswick Sunday School Association met at the Bible House yesterday afternoon. Rev. H. R. Boyer presided in the absence of Mayor R. T. Hayes, and C. E. Wasson acted as secretary. The meeting pledged itself to increase the subscription to the International Sunday School Association to $100. E. R. Machum reported for the educational department of the association, showing that there was a marked increase in teachers' training work during the year.

Rev. P. R. Hayward, of Fairville, who is leaving this district, resigned as superintendent of the secondary division and Rev. L. W. Williamson was appointed in his place. Mr. Hayward will be continued on the executive committee and will be made a representative of New Brunswick on the Canadian council of the Provincial Sunday School Association. All the financial and other reports showed a satisfactory condition of affairs during the year just closed. It was announced that the International Sunday School Convention will meet at Buffalo in June next. A resolution of sympathy was presented to the general secretary, Rev. W. A. Ross, of Moncton, on the death of his mother. General Secretary Ross reported having made successful visits to different sections of the province during the year. It was agreed to approve of the idea of holding a girls' conference during the present year and the arrangements will be worked out later.

Release Drafts To Aid Farmers

Fredricton, N. B., Jan. 31.—As an outcome of the recent conference held by provincial representatives with Hon. T. A. Cress, minister of agriculture, at Ottawa, arrangements have been made for the release of soldiers drafted under the M. S. A. for participation in farm labor. The idea is for the men to assist in seeding operations, but they will be held under military discipline and must engage in actual farming operations, returning to their depot when this work is finished. Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, provincial minister of agriculture, represented New Brunswick at the conference and is gratified to know that one of the matters proposed there has already been accomplished. It is the aim of the department to assure farmers endeavoring to engage in increased production that they will not lack for help.

SETTLE MINERS' DISPUTE

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—A satisfactory settlement of the dispute between the employees at the Jubilee mine, which is operated by the Nova Scotia Steel Company, was reached this morning, when representatives of the miners and the company met in conference with Hon. T. W. Crothers. The dispute which arose over wages paid to the men employed in the Jubilee mine was settled by the company undertaking to pay the miners a regular contract rate for each ton of coal mined.
