Every person applying to be matriculated for the first time, shall undergo an examination before the Senate,* and if the candidate does not display such a proficiency in these elementary subjects of examination, as to warrant the expectation that he will pursue his studies with success, it shall be competent for the Senate to refuse his admission. The Senatus shall have power to rank a Student, even at his first entrance, as a senior one, provided that he display such proficiency in the subjects of examination as shall fully warrant his being so ranked; such indulgence to be granted only in those cases where the Student exhibits a degree of proficiency decidedly above the average rate of intrants.

4. When a Student of a former year applies for matriculation, he shall be examined by the Senate on the studies of the previous Session or Sessions, and also in regard to the improvement he has made, during the vacation, by private study; and if it shall appear that he has been negligent, it shall be competent for the Senate to place him in the same situation, in regard to standing, which he held the previous session.
