

children on the Lord's day; to the medical gentleman for his professional service; and to all others who have in any way contributed in furthering the interests of the Institution; and, above all, they desire to put on record their grateful feelings to God for all His mercies in the past.

In conclusion, the Committee again earnestly request the parishioners of St. Paul's to pay a visit to the Institution, and see for themselves what their money is expended for. The matron will at all reasonable hours be glad to show them over the building, and give any information which may be desired.
