THE TEACHERIS REWARD.

"I have labored in vain.' a teacher said, And her brow was marked by care ; 'I have labored in vain' She bowed her head, And bitter and sad were the tears she shed. In that moment of dark despair.

" I am weary and worn, and my hands are weak, And inv courage is al most gone ;. For none give heed to the words I speak. And in vain for a promise of fruit I seek, Where the see | of the Word is sown.

"And again with a sorrowful heart she wept, For her spirit with grief was stirred ; Till the night grew dark, and at last she slept And a silent calm o'er her spirit crept,

And a whisper of peace was heard. " And she thought in her dream that the soul took flight. To a blessed and bright abode ; She saw a throne of dazzling light, And harps were ringing, and robes were white,

Made white in a Saviour's blood. "And she saw a countless throng around As she never had seen before ;

Their brows with jewels of light were crowned And sorrow and sighing no place had found, For the troubles of time were o'er. (

"Then rise, fellow-teacher, to labor go ! Wile scattered the precious grain Though the fruit may never be seen below. Be sure that the seed of the Word shall grow Toil on in faith, and thou soon shalt know "I'hy labor is not in vain !"
