He do been ill for about seven months. He as a well known gentleman and one hose death is heard of with deep reset by his friends and acquaintances. Mr. Drury was a son of the late Col. rury, who resided at Newlands, on the arsh road. He was born on Feb. 4th, 124, and was therefore in his 68th years e was educated at the St. John Gramar School and King's college, Frederic m, being a graduate at the latter insti-	Mrs. Brown Potter's Life in the Antipodes Not All Pleasure. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 10.—Advices from Australia give some breezy accounts of episodes in Mrs. James Brown Potter's life in Australia. It seems according to the story of several actors who came up from the colonies, that Mrs. Potter was greatly wroth because she was not socially received in Melbourne, and she made life miserable for her company. She insisted upon midnight rehearsals, in order that she might take excursions about the country in the afternoon. Young Actress Shot in an English Railway Carriage. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. LONDON, Aug 10.—A first-class carriage on an express train, running from the compartments was found a well dressed young lady, suffering from a terrible shot wound, who now lies in a precarious condition. The only information about the shooting obtainable is an incoherent story she tells of a man who shot her from the fotoboard of the train. It has also been learned that the suffering woman is an actress, named Leonore Marie, with con-	Fortress Monroe—In the roads Aug 7th barks Antigna from New York, Nora Wig- gins, from Port Spain; sohe Frances, from Maroin walking orders.
