MINERALOGIST BACK.

W. F. Robertson Has Completed the Field Work For the Present Season.

William Fleet Robertson, provincial mineralogist, has returned from an in-spection of the Atlin mining camp, several weeks having been spent in that dis-trict. This will likely close the field work of the mineralogist for this season. The weather in the north has been The weather in the north has been charming. Mr. Robertson says, during the time he was in the camp. The conditions prevailing were very similar to what they are in Victoria at the present time, only that the nights were a little colder. The temperature at night would just reach the freezing point.

Mr. Robertson is delighted with the Bessonette; cut glass and silver salt and town of Atlin. Beautifully situated, the pepper shakers, Mr. J. L. Lombard; orange town of Atin. This observation was made to a Times representative yesterday by P. Wollaston, jr., manager of Wilson Bros.' wholesale grocers, who has just returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to Dawson. He had no hesitation in describing the reports to the contrary as greatly exaggerated. He could find no reason why people should not be satisfied to live at the Klondike metropolis at the present, and knew of no law or conditions which could operate to their injury.

These are very important statements.

The edifice, which was well filled, was in Victoria. Thursday's ball was acknowledged to surpass all others held under the auspies of the Ladies' Auxiliary.
