BRITISH AMBASSADOR ASKS ABOUT BELLINGHAM RIOTS

And is Told That Press Reports Were Greatly Exaggerated—The Offenders Have Been Arrested—No Fear of Further Violence

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 20.—A despatch from Olympia says: The disorders at Bellingham several days ago which resulted in the intimidation of the Hindus and caused their departure from that city has been brought to the attention of the state department at Washington through a note from the British ambassador. The ambassador states that he has been informed that a majority of the Hindus have left Bellingham for Canada in consequence of the trouble and that those at Everett are in fear of an outbreak. Acting Secretary of State Adee wired Governor Mead the substance of the ambassador's note and asked that he be advised as to the situation.
On receipt of this note the governor wired Mayor Black at Bellingham and Mayor Newton Jones at Everett to ascertain the conditions in those cities and has received their replies, which have been communicated to Washington.
Bellingham-Hindus have largely left here. There is no danger of trouble under present conditions. No force has been used. They were ordered out of town by a crowd of men and boys. I saw no sufficient officers to protect them and so notified the interpreter. I also saw the arrest and prosecution of the rioters. Press reports are greatly exaggerated. Hindus are receiving and will receive full protection.
(Signed) ALFRED L. BLACK, Mayor.

Everett, Wn.—Am in receipt of your telegram and as the mayor is out of town, and cannot be located I will state there are no indications of any trouble. Have been instructed by the mayor in case of trouble to deputize every available man.
(Signed) SCOTT MARSHALL, Chief of Police.

RICH GOLD FIND NEAR TEMAGAMI
Great Bonanza Discovery Made South of Cobalt—Enormous Value Reported.

COBALT, Sept. 19.—What will likely be the greatest bonanza discovery in the wilds of New Ontario was made a few days ago about thirty miles south of this camp and about five miles from Temagami Station. Mr. G. W. Wallace, of Detroit, a prominent investor and well-informed mining man, visited the property today, and states positively that the find is gold in the richest form possible. The prospectors who discovered it are Messrs. Boyce and Turner, and they have been developing the property for the last six weeks. The shaft is down six feet to a point where two veins meet and in one was found calc pyrite carrying about four per cent. copper. When operations were started the interpreter also saved the vein and states positively that there was thrown on the dump about 1500 worth of gold before the prospectors were aware that they had struck it. So rich was the vein that an assay of some pieces showed an existing value of 15,000 ounces, or $200,000 to the ton.

AMERICAN BICYCLISTS ARE RACING IN FRANCE
PARIS, Sept. 20.—Two American bicyclists, McLean and Collins, rode here last evening and were given a popular reception. McLean beat Simar, one of the crack French riders in the first contest, but Simar came in ahead of Collins in the race.

BASEBALL SALARIES
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20.—The managers of tri-state leagues at their annual meeting held here last night decided that salary limit for clubs in the league should be limited to $2,000 a month. Where the club has a playing manager the limit was fixed at $2,300. Each club will be required to file a bond of at least $2,000 as a guarantee of good faith. The pennant was formally awarded to Williamsport.

THE COLLINS TRIAL
HOPEWELL CAPE, Sept. 20.—Only three witnesses were examined at the Collins trial until adjournment at one o'clock. Those were Michael Toeben, Thomas Melin and Mrs. Sarah Williamson. Their evidence produced nothing new. The attendance this morning was very small, little interest being taken.

DIPLOMATS ARE PLAYING THE GAME

Morocco Furnishes Pretext for Settling Other Scores. France and Spain Will be Given Further Powers, But Germany Demands a Quid Pro Quo.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—For those who are interested to know how the game of diplomacy is played there is a striking object lesson in the attempt now being made to secure the agreement of the European powers on a policy for dealing with the Morocco crisis. It is obvious to anybody that the limited powers given to France and Spain by the Algeiras agreement to police the coast towns without any interference with the sovereignty of the Sultan are utterly inadequate for meeting the present emergency. It is clear that executive military action is necessary to suppress anarchy and restore some semblance of order.
It seems simple enough to obtain general consent to the adoption of these measures under proper restrictions and guarantees. The need of prompt action is pressing because the season of bad weather is close at hand, and as soon as the storms come, the warships which are anchored off Casablanca and other points, must leave, for the harbors exist in name only. This is the opportunity for which the fanatic Moors are waiting. They know that they are powerless within the range of the ship's guns, but they have little fear from the small land forces located at most of the coast towns.
France and Spain, after consultation with Great Britain, soon agreed that the only thing to be done was to send a sufficient force to each town to hold it against attack without the aid of warships. This plan was then submitted to Germany for approval, her consent being the only point in doubt. Now diplomacy never gives anything for nothing. This, at least, is the first principle of the game as played in the Old World. Germany's answer was very disappointing to France. It was a refusal, but she was indeed, full approval of the proposed policy, provided the situation was represented by the French hypothesis, quoting her consul at Tangier, and other authorities, to the effect that serious danger did not exist.
Germany is on better terms with France than at any time since the War of 1870. Moreover, she wishes to make her relations still more friendly. She has other negotiations pending with Paris, and she secretly desires to make her relations still more friendly. She also wants French assistance in certain Persian loans, and building the Baghdad railway. She is willing to be willing, apparently, to risk a massacre this winter in Morocco, and also to offend France by her recent attitude. Really, she has no intention of doing either. She is perfectly willing that France shall have a free hand in Morocco. She is simply trying to get the most she can out of the cards she holds.
German public opinion has been educated into great suspicion of French designs on Morocco, and this must be placated. Germany's refusal of her consent to the Moroccan programme has already accomplished this. It has called out from France and Spain renewed and sweeping avowals of self-abnegation. They have given fresh pledges to respect Moroccan independence under all circumstances, and that troops shall confine themselves to police duty as defined in the Algeiras convention.
Under these circumstances, and when other points pending between the two governments have been quietly talked over, it may be expected that Germany will graciously give way. France will get what she wants, Germany will have greatly, a point or two in other directions, and everybody will be happy. Such is diplomacy up-to-date.

GAUGHT AT PRESIDENT'S DOOR
Man Wanted Roosevelt to Help Him Collect $10,000,000 From Rockefeller.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 19.—Secret Service Wash was on duty in front of President Roosevelt's house at Sagamore Hill at 7 o'clock tonight when he saw a man dressed in overalls and wearing a slouch hat step around from the rear of the house. Wash didn't say anything at first, because he thought the man might be employed on the farm, but when he went up on the porch and started to ring the doorbell Wash asked him what he wanted.
"Want to see the President to get him to make John D. Rockefeller pay me $10,000,000 he owes me," the man said. "I know that's the only way I'll ever get the money."
Washer asked the man about himself and the visitor in the overalls said he was Orlando Toland and had come all the way from Oxford, Ala., to see the President. He said that he had beaten his way on freight trains to Washington and when he found the President he stole a ride to New York. He looked all the way out to Oyster Bay, he said.
Washer then sent a hurry call to the secret service men who know the Government automobiles and the man was rushed down to the executive offices. There secret service men who know Alabama questioned him, and were convinced that he was telling the truth. Before it was decided what to do with Toland the secret service man routed out of bed Constable Charley Townsend with the idea of putting him in the lockup. When they talked with the man a little more they decided that he was perfectly harmless, gave him $100,000,000 he owes me," the man said. He said that he had beaten his way on freight trains to Washington and when he found the President he stole a ride to New York. He looked all the way out to Oyster Bay, he said.

ELEVEN VESSELS WRECKED ON NEWFOUNDLAND COAST
The Worst Storm in Forty Years Prevailed Yesterday—Five Lives Were Lost.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 19.—The worst equinoctial gale recorded here in 40 years swept the Newfoundland coast today. Tonight's reports from fishing towns and settlements showed that the storm struck many fishing vessels and eleven schooners and sloops were driven ashore at various points, and foundered at their moorings. A large number of vessels are on their way to Newfoundland from Labrador, whose fishing season closed a few days ago, and it is feared more disasters will be reported.
The eleven vessels wrecked put into a dozen harbors for shelter, but were driven ashore or sunk. Most of these lost had full cargoes of fish.
DOUBLE SUNSET.
Percival Spencer, in an account of a balloon ascent from Hackett, says that a peculiar effect was the double sunset which was observed. The sun seemed to set twice as the balloon arose and fell alternately.

INTENDED TO KILL HIMSELF AFTER SHOOTING COMPANIONS

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL PLAYERS ARE IN LINE
All Ready for the Season's Sport—The Probable Schedule and the List of Players.

The Intermediate Football League has completed their arrangements for the season's campaign and all four teams are practicing hard each night. The Victorias, winners of the cup in 1906, have a strong line-up, composed mostly of the players of last year, although a new player or two can be found in the forward line. The Victorias are anxious to get a better hold upon the cup—which they must win three times in order to own outright—and expect to be required to play first-class football in order to do so. The cup is a very handsome one of silver lined with gold. It was donated by Principal J. E. Moore, of Rothesay College. The city championship goes with the cup so that it is indeed a prize worth striving for.
The boys are advertising and working hard generally in an endeavor to make the season a success from a financial, as well as an athletic standpoint. Arrangements for the entire series of games have not yet been completed but Saturday's game will take place on the Shamrock grounds.
The following schedule has been agreed upon by the league executive: Sept. 21—Victorias and Miemas; C. B. U. and La Tours.
Sept. 28—Victorias and La Tours; Miemas and C. B. U.
Oct. 5—C. B. U. and La Tours; Victorias and Miemas.
Oct. 12—C. B. U. and Victorias; Miemas and La Tours.
Oct. 19—Miemas and C. B. U.; Victorias and La Tours.
Oct. 26—La Tours and Miemas; Victorias and C. B. U.
The line-up of the teams will be as follows:
Victorias—Full, Corbett; halves, Les, Schofield, Murry, Devers; quarters, Roberts, Kew, forwards, Sullivan, E. Finlay, Jas. Gorham, Scott, O. Wilson, F. Wilson, Parker, Daniels.
C. B. U.—Full, Tom Murry; halves, Speight, Howard, Everett, Murphy; quarters, Baskin, Barry; forwards, C. O. B. U., A. Estabrook, Hart, McLaughlin, Todd.
La Tours—Full, Wm. Morrissey; halves, Oet. Pike, Drinan, G. Clarke, Murphy; forwards, F. Pike, B. Stewart, J. Murphy, A. Lanagan, A. Duffy, H. Clark, G. Johnston, A. Estabrook.
Miemas—Full, Howard; halves, W. Jennings, Brown, Willis, L. O'Neill; quarters, O'Neill, McEwen; forwards, Leonard, A. Jennings, Miller, Godard, Smith, March, Bardeley.

SCOTCH WHISKEY TO GO UP
Only Obstacle to Raise of Price is Immenese Stock on Hand.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—Drinkers of Scotch whiskey must be prepared shortly to pay higher for their favorite beverage. The distillers say that owing to the great rise in the price of coal and the increase in the price of barley, due to a sunnier summer, the cost of production has been raised to a point which leaves little or no profit.
They accordingly are convening a meeting to discuss the raising of prices. There are, however, considerable difficulties in this case, inasmuch as there are too many producers and the stocks already landed are overwhelmingly large.
The number of distillers in Scotland is 184, of whom 98 produce Highland malt whiskey, and the stocks amount to 118,000,000 proof gallons, equivalent to more than four years supply. One suggestion dealing with the situation is that the distillers organize and act as a syndicate, and by that means view to limiting production, the owners of the closed distilleries being compensated at a fixed rate by those kept working.
This does not meet with entire approval, some of the most prominent distillers regarding it as impracticable.

ATTEMPTED TO KILL A WHOLE FAMILY
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 19.—A mysterious prisoner probably afflicted with a mania for taking life, is causing terror among families in the neighborhood of Gerst Alley, Allegheny. Having been successful in causing the death of a number of horses and dogs, the prisoner is believed to have attempted yesterday to kill a whole family.
The victims are:
Mrs. Maggie Hoffman, 44 years old; Fred Hoffman, 22; Charles Hoffman, 7; Esther Hoffman, 5; Eveline Tuscher, 19 years old, the child of a neighbor. The family had eaten some soup for dinner that had been kept in an outside refrigerator overnight. Immediately after the meal the entire family was taken so seriously ill that physicians were called and found them suffering from arsenic poisoning.

Boy Murderer at Limestone, Me., Forgot His Plan and Used Up All His Cartridges—Preliminary Hearing at Houlton

HOULTON, Sept. 20.—The grand jury sitting at the September judicial court on Thursday considered the case of Guy or Augustus Tardy, who was brought here from Limestone and lodged in jail for the alleged murder of Oscar and Stephen Downing on Tuesday, Sept. 17. Four witnesses were summoned to give testimony before the jury, Carl Hammond, James Phair, Dr. Damon and Hubbard, all of Limestone or vicinity, besides Fred Tardy, cousin of the accused who was held as the only eye witness of the shooting.
Fred Tardy's story of the tragedy is substantially as follows:
"The four of us started out hunting. All of us had firearms. I had a 22 Winchester, Guy had a 20-30 repeater, Oscar Downing a 44 rifle and Steve Downing a 22 revolver. We struck the woods back of Jim Phair's pasture and after beating around for a while came out in a clearing. When we were at the long fence, Guy and I said that we were going home. The Downing boys wanted us to stay with them and hunt a while longer.
"We started along after quite a growl. Then the Downing boys came running after us. Oscar said to Guy, 'Now, we'll settle this matter right here.' There's nothing to settle,' says Guy.
"There was some more talk and Steve came along and takes me by the shoulder and tells Oscar to 'get Guy'. Just then Oscar is making for him, Guy brings up his rifle and fires at him, and he falls; then he whirrs and fires at Steve who dropped.
"We started for home and I went but a little ways when Guy fires three shots in the air. Then he says, 'What have I done; I wanted one shot to kill myself; I had one cartridge with me and threw it away, because I was afraid he might take the rifle away from me and shoot himself. When he got home he tried to get some more cartridges for his rifle and then said he was going to cut his throat with his hunting knife.
"When he saw that his father was feeling bad about the shooting he says, 'Don't cry, father, there's nothing to cry about.' He acted funny and I should say he was not in his right mind at all."
The bodies of the two Downing boys were taken to an undertaking establishment at Limestone. Examination showed that Steve Downing was shot through the brain, the bullet making a terrible wound. Oscar Downing was shot in the neck, the bullet cutting the jugular. He lived a few minutes and walked and crawled 7 feet from the spot where he was standing when shot. Guy Tardy was thought well of here and considered inoffensive. There had, as far as known, never been any previous trouble among the boys.
Guy Tardy has a father, mother and sister who are nearly prostrated over the sad affair.
Young Tardy says that he remembers nothing of any shooting and cannot be induced to talk on the subject.

BASEBALL SITUATION IS ALL MIXED UP

The local baseball situation has taken an interesting turn and, while it was thought that the season had practically ended so far as local supremacy was concerned, the new phases and an element of uncertainty.
When the Marathons played the recent series with the St. Joseph's latter were looked upon as winners of the Inter-Society league series, and therefore eligible to play for the championship of the city, and it was understood by followers of the game and by the public that such was the intention to play.
As a matter of fact the St. Joseph's are not yet winners in the Inter-Society league, nor could they rightfully make a claim that they were until the executive of the league had awarded them the championship.
By letting the recent game with St. Rose's go by default, they allowed St. Peter's to tie them for first place. The St. Joseph's and the North End boys have one game each to play with the P. M. A. team. If both win or if both lose they will still be tied, and there will be a play-off. If one should lose and the other win against St. Rose's, the winner in this case would be winner of the league series also.
If St. Joseph's should finally win out no doubt the Marathons will be left in undisturbed possession of their hard earned title of city champions, but if, on the other hand, St. Peter's should win, it would leave the whole matter in a very unsatisfactory condition. It is quite natural that the North End boys would wish to have a look-in for the championship, and it is probable that the Marathons would be reluctant to play a second time for a title they have already fought for once.
DRESDEN, Sept. 19.—King Frederick Augustus of Saxony, was thrown from his horse during the manoeuvres near here today. He sustained a number of slight injuries but was able however to remount and continue command of the troops.
