SACKVILLE, N. B., Oct. 23.—The home of Almsley Atkinson, West Sackville, was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday afternoon, when his eldest daughter, Jennie May, and Helen Barnes were united in marriage. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. E. B. McLachlan, B. D., in the presence of about fifty invited guests. The bride was attired in white silk, wore a bridal veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses; she was attended by Miss Jessie Bowser, who wore white organdy with trimmings of lace. The groomsmen were Percy Atkinson, brother of the bride, Miss Burmah Chase played the wedding march. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents, among them being a substantial check from the groom. The happy couple left on the maritime express for a trip to Montreal and showers of rice, and followed by the best wishes of a host of friends. The bride's travelling suit was green cloth with hat to match. On their return they will reside at Moncton.

The geographical carnival held by the young people of the Congregational Sunday school last Thursday evening was quite largely attended, and a neat little sum realized.

During the heavy wind which prevailed this evening a spark was carried from the saw mill furnace to a building in proximity, setting it on fire. An alarm was sent in, which called out the fire department, and the blaze was extinguished before gaining any headway.

Ernest Wilson is confined to his home on Water street with illness.

The game of football played this afternoon at Calais between the Ricker Classical Institute team of Houlton and the Calais team, resulted in a victory for the former, the score being 10-0. This was a very good game, but a better one is expected tomorrow (Saturday), when the Houlton team will play against Milltown.

Joe Cohort, town treasurer, still continues in feeble health at his home on Queen street.

Do You Choose

YOUR MEDICINE WITH CARE AND INSIST ON HAVING
Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed AND Turpentine

FOR AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS.

You cannot be too particular in buying medicine. It may be a question of life or death.

There are too many cough and cold remedies that there is a tendency to be careless in the selection of treatment, and yet what is more dangerous than a cold?

You would not think of taking any heart trouble or kidney disease, and yet how many people die from the result of neglected colds than from these ailments.

INSIST ON HAVING A MEDICINE OF RELIABILITY AND REPUTATION, SUCH AS DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE.

This great family medicine has stood the test of years, and never disappointed those who put their trust in it as a cure for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma, coughs, colds and throat troubles.

Do not be satisfied with substitutes and imitations, for they lack the curative powers which have given Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine its world-wide reputation.

MRS. GEO. GOOD, Tichborne, Adjoining Co., Ont., writes: "It is with pleasure that I certify to the wonderful success of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a cure for colds. It is the best and surest treatment for coughs and colds that we have ever been able to find."

Geo. Good, Tichborne, Adjoining Co., Ont.

MRS. A. A. VAN BUSKIRK, Robinson street, Menon, N. B., writes: "For years I have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for my children when they have colds in the winter. I first used it with my daughter, who suffered from a severe form of asthma. The least exposure to cold would lay her up, and she would nearly suffocate for want of breath. I must say I found it to be a most satisfactory treatment, and it has entirely cured her. It seems to go direct to the diseased parts and bring the desired relief."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A COOL MURDERER.

Robert Taylor of Winnipeg Was Comfortable After Killing His Wife.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 26.—A cold blooded murder was committed this morning at a boarding house, 266 Nena street, when Robert Taylor, teamster, split open his wife's head with an axe.

He then quietly woke up the other boarders and informed them he had killed the "old woman." The murderer had not been drinking to excess, and appears to be sane, but no motive for the crime can be imagined.

Taylor, in waking up the inmates, walked through the house holding a lamp and bloody axe in his hands. The boarders became panic stricken and sent for the police.

Sergts. Kerr and Robertson arrived, handcuffed Taylor and removed him to the station. He was still smoking his pipe when the police arrived, and tried to explain the nature of the wound. He remarked that he was quite comfortable, after which he burst forth into a song, singing "Loch Lomond" until stopped by the police.

The murdered woman's maiden name was Rathburn, and she came from Deseronto, Ont. Three daughters of Taylor's live in the house. Taylor claims he belongs to Cameron, Ont.

FORCE OF HABIT.
Cupid was laughing.
"Will bet I'd make a good street-car conductor," he chuckled.
"Why so?" asked Hymen.
"Oh, I'm so used to telling people to 'sit closer, please.'"

THE UP-TO-DATE HOUSE.

(Chicago Tribune.)
When we called at William Spiffers' there was music in the air.
William Spiffers smiled a smile.
"Tis," he said, "a planet, and it's playing all the while."

And we complimented William on the talent he had had there.
"It must be your wife or daughter who can execute so well.
On the difficult piano. Did she learn abroad, pray tell?"
William Spiffers' eye grew winkful:

Soon we heard somebody singing, and her tones were clear and sweet.
"Excellent!" we said to Spiffers. "Such a voice cannot be beat."
Now, that must be Mrs. Spiffers, or perhaps your daughter, Bess—
As an operatic singer she would make a great success.

"Tis nobody," Spiffers answered, "all that vocal music's from An electro voiceless—it can surely make things hum."

Then he showed us his collection of mechanical affairs—
"Here's a pocket trolly that I use for paying fares;
Here's a glided readerette that reads all my books for me;
Here's a polished bathwater, twice as salty as the sea;

This is my new cardiology, which plays poker with its wheels;
There's the dinorola table which when running serves the meals."

As we left, the butlerella softly came and swung the door,
And a goodbyetta murmured, "Now be sure to come some day."
Then we wandered to the sidewalk, past the hammockina swings,
Thinking of the wondrous progress made in labor saving things.

At the gate we paused a moment just to mop our puzzled brows,
And an iron doggyella wagged its tail and chirped "Bow wow!"

CHIPMAN.
CHIPMAN, Oct. 22.—Rev. J. A. Cahill, lecturer for the I. O. G. T., delivered a very entertaining, convincing and forceful address on prohibition in the Baptist church last evening, and at the close reorganized Chipman Lodge, No. 146, with a membership of 30 and the following officers: B. E. Crandall, L. D.; Emory Branscombe, P. C. T.; L. R. Hetherington, C. T.; Mrs. G. H. King, V. C. T.; A. G. Carpenter, R. S.; Mrs. Morrison, F. S.; Mrs. McLean, treas.; Mrs. Hetherington, Secy.; A. L. Shill, mar.; W. Darragh, G.; R. Orchard, S.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Godose are spending a week with their daughter, Mrs. Harry King. Mr. Godose purposes taking a moon or two away with him. Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson have returned from Woodstock, where they attended the Sunday school convention.

So far there have been no political meetings near the Cumberland Bay. But a large number of voters of Minto and Chipman took advantage of an excursion train on the Central to go down to Cady's Tuesday and attend a meeting in the hall. I was tired—my limbs ached all over.

KITCHENER'S PLANS.

100,000 Men on the Indian Frontier Ready to Move Instantly.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Lord Kitchener's plans for the reorganization of the Indian army are well advanced, and a considerable grant of money has been made to him, in order that he may carry out his scheme.

As has already been stated, Lord Kitchener's aim is to place a fully equipped army of the northwest frontier, ready to move against an invader, and strike swiftly.

The new field army, which will consist of 100,000 men, will be organized in divisions, each of which will stand complete in itself for war.

The divisions will be placed in peace time at strategic points in Northern India, and the great invasion routes via Kandahar and Kabul will be covered by the main body of the new force. These two routes are those selected for the Russian plan of advance, by Kun, Kuropatkin, in the event of hostilities between Russia and this country.

FIRE IN PHILADELPHIA.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—Fire tonight did damage to the amount of $30,000 in the pattern shop and brass foundry of the Neale & Levy Shipyard. A large number of patterns and plans were destroyed, among them several for the construction of the U. S. cruiser St. Louis, now on the ways in the yard. An official of the company said tonight that the loss of the plans would probably cause some delay in the launching of the cruiser.

(New York Times.)
Col. Henry Watterson of Kentucky during his recent visit to New York told a story of an old darkey down South who was informed that whiskey was an infallible cure for snakebite. His informant told him that if he was bitten by the snake he would die and he would go uncured.

"Dar's only one trouble 'bout that cure," the old man said. "I knows whar plenty snakes, but whar's I gwine ter git de whiskey?"

SUSSEX.
SUSSEX, Oct. 20.—Ed. Hallett, who has been confined to the house for some days as the result of injuries to his back recently, is reported as being very much better.

The entertainment by J. Frances Gilder of New York, pianist, and D. Arnold Fox of St. John, in Oddfellows' Hall tonight, bids fair to be well attended. The entertainment is under the auspices of Trinity church, Sussex.

MANZER V. COSTIGAN.
Conservative Candidate Carrying on a Brisk and Successful Campaign.

ANDOVER, N. B., Oct. 24.—Mr. Manzer, the opposition candidate here, is receiving most encouraging reports from all parts of the county. Every day he is receiving promises of strong support from the liberals of the county and the conservatives are a unit in his favor.

The organization in Madawaska Co. has reached an advanced stage and in one of the predictions of Costigan's friends to the effect that their favorite will sweep Madawaska, Manzer is sure to receive a strong support from that part of the constituency on Nov. 2nd. All reports from there are encouraging. It looks as if Manzer could only be defeated by lavish expenditure of money, and even that may fail, as our constituency is not supposed to be purchasable.

WILL BUILD BIG MILL.
New Company Formed Near New-castle.

NEWCASTLE, Oct. 25.—Oscar W. Norden, Knup Norden, Axel M. Sundon, Fedee C. Waern and Carl F. Nelson, all of Rose Bank, near here, have been incorporated as the Rose Bank Lumber Company, Ltd. The capital stock of the company is $75,000, divided into 750 shares. It is the intention of the company to erect a large saw mill near the site of the old Doyle mill, which was purchased a short time ago by the company. The new mill will be equipped with the latest modern machinery, and will manufacture articles not hitherto attempted on the Miramichi. The company expect to employ a very large number of hands next spring.

NEW COMPANIES.
Two new companies of the Boys' Brigade were organized last night in the school room of St. David's church. One company, of which William Malcolm is instructor, is composed of boys from 13 years upwards. This will be a cadet corps and is to be affiliated with the senior corps of this city. There will be about thirty-eight in the full company. There are now twelve companies in all of the Boys' Brigade. The new companies are both getting on to the drill finely and Mr. Malcolm will make a capable instructor for them.

Washing Proves
There's only one real test of unshrinkable underwear—the wash tub. Two or three hard rubbings will soon shorten the usual "unshrinkable" underwear. That's why the directions for washing are so elaborate—why there are so many "ifs" and "don'ts."

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear
Is absolutely unshrinkable. The wash tub proves it. Your dealer guarantees this to you—and we back up that guarantee to him. We know it won't shrink because it can't shrink. Our special process takes out the shrink before the garments are cut. Even then, each one is tested by washing.

ST. JOHN.
ST. JOHN, Oct. 25.—John Hay, a manufacturer in Colchester, who employs from 30 to 40 hands, an old country Scotchman, a Gladstone liberal, and who has supported the liberal party in Canada during the 22 years he has been in this country, has decided to throw in his lot with the liberal conservative party, and is actively supporting Mr. Gaurley, the conservative candidate for Colchester. Asked by your correspondent as to the reasons for the change, Mr. Hay said: "My faith in the liberal party began to wane at the time W. S. Stead interviewed Sir Wilfrid Laurier and asked him what position he would assume in case the Mother Country became involved in war. His reply was that he would try to keep Canada neutral. This he backed up shortly afterwards, at the time the Boer war broke out, by declaring that Canada could not send troops to the assistance of the Mother Country unless parliament first granted permission. By sheer force of public opinion, however, troops were sent without parliament granting permission. But what capped the climax."

Mr. Hay went on to say, "and compelled me to give my support to the liberal conservative party, were the Grand Trunk Pacific deal and the Dundonald affair. My support in this contest goes to the conservatives and to Mr. Gaurley, who is the standard bearer in the county of government ownership of a transcontinental railway."

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.
Model of the Champlain Monument Will Be Here in a Few Days.

The meeting of the Historical Society held last night was not largely attended, owing probably to the proximity of the general elections. Many of the leading members are closely identified with the political situation, and consequently were unable to be present.

Rev. W. C. Gaylor was in the chair. In connection with the Champlain monument it was announced that Hamilton McCarthy, the Canadian artist-sculptor, would be here in about ten days, and bring with him his model, for the inspection of the society. All the members will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity to see the model.

There was some discussion as to what site should be selected, but nothing definite in this respect was accomplished.

Attention was directed to the fact that the society's valuable collections of pictures and manuscripts were now stored in an unsuitable place, and W. McArthur, who is delegated to inquire what provision might be made for having them housed in the public library building.

D. R. Jack presented the society with the new flag from the Acadie as she entered St. John harbor during the tercentenary celebration.

Rev. W. O. Raymond, who has recently returned from Boston, reported that he had discovered among the possessions of the Massachusetts Historical Society a number of interesting and valuable manuscripts relating to New England settlements along the St. John river in 1765.
