

SUFFERED FOR YEARS WITH STOMACH TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" PROMPTLY CURED HIM

DANIEL SAUNDERS, Esq.

Mr. Daniel Saunders, of Shoal Lake, Manitoba, is one of the best known gentlemen in Canada's great wheat country. He lived for years in the west—made a success of his farming—and has now retired from active business life to enjoy the fruits of his work.

When a man of such financial and social standing voluntarily testifies to the great benefits he has received from taking "Fruit-a-tives," there can be no doubt but that "Fruit-a-tives" deserves the confidence of every reader of this paper.

June 14th, 1910. "For years I was bothered with persistent Dyspepsia and indigestion, having severe pains after meal time. I tried everything that I could get but the pain in my stomach became no better.

"Last summer, Mr. Oatway, a druggist of my town, recommended 'Fruit-a-tives' to me. While taking 'Fruit-a-tives' I found that I was in the habit of eating neither did I stop smoking. Yet in spite of all 'Fruit-a-tives' has done wonders for me and I strongly advise all my friends to use it."

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of pure fruit juices, and will always cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach, Bilelessness, Constipation and any other disease that comes from disordered Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. 50c. a box. 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

Irregularities in Market Exposed

Q.—Then you understood from what the market people said that you could get a stand from Ald. Potts?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Had you any understanding not to bid at the auction sales on the ground that you would be provided for?

A.—No.

At this point Ald. Potts asked—Has the chairman anything up his sleeve? If so I'd like to know where he got his information.

Ald. Jones—I'm here to do a certain duty—not to answer questions.

Charles Hamm, sworn, said he went in the market in 1905, Mr. Akery had the tolls. Witness only paid his tolls. He had been buying a shelf for about 3 years. The first year he paid $30 for half a shelf. Next year he paid $60. This year he paid $50. He paid Roy Potts on the orders of Ald. Potts.

Q.—Was there any understanding with you not to bid on a shelf—that you could get it this way?

A.—No.

A.—How did you come to go to Mr. Potts in any of these cases?

A.—I asked him if there was any chance to get a stand.

Q.—What gave you the idea that Mr. Potts could give you a chance?

A.—I supposed Mr. Potts had orders to sell these stands.

Q.—Doesn't it look strange to you that Mr. Potts should sell the stands when Mr. Akery wasn't doing so?

A.—I heard Mr. Potts was charging others.

Q.—Did Mr. Potts go to you, or did you go to Mr. Potts?

A.—I think I went to Mr. Potts.

Q.—Did you hear of Mr. Akery charging anybody for stands?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you speak to Mr. Dunham about this matter?

A.—No.

Q.—Did you speak to Mr. Wisley? He said he heard you were renting a stall from the lessee of the tolls.

A.—Not until I was moved, I went to him and complained then.

Witness asked how much Mr. Potts asked for $1 per week, and he gave it him.

Q.—Why did you give Mr. Potts $1 per week?

A.—Well, I suppose I was an easy mark.

Q.—What did you feel you were getting for the $1 per week?

A.—Nothing.

Q.—Come now: The general impression is that a trader in the market never lets go $1 unless he expects to get back $2. Did you feel you were getting something for this $1 per week?

A.—No, Potts—the collector did not collect tolls on some things in your stand?

Witness said the collector did not collect tolls on some small things.

The Recorder:—Did you consider that you were bumping the tolls?

A.—No—I paid tolls on most every thing, except a few small articles.

Q.—Did you feel you could be put out, or be interfered with?

A.—I don't think I did.

Q.—If I went up there and asked for $1 a week you would give it to me?

A.—Yes, if you were known about the market.

Q.—A business man does not part with $1 per week without some consideration. Surely you have some reason better than those you have given?

A.—I don't think I have.

Q.—Did you think Mr. Potts had power to take the rent from him, and that the amount he paid Mr. Potts was away in excess of any exemptions received on tolls.

Witness said he had paid Roy Potts since he became collector.

Ald. Vanwart's Evidence.
 Ald. Vanwart was then sworn. He had been chairman of the Safety Board for five years, he said.

Q.—When was your attention first called to the fact that the lessee of the tolls was selling privileges in the market?

A.—Not until recently when this trouble began.

ly, asking him if I could have the stand. He said I could: If Potts wouldn't let me have it he said he would. This talk was before the sales. Afterwards I went to Ald. Potts.

Q.—Why did you not bid at the sale?

A.—It was my understanding that the shelves weren't sold at auction.

Q.—Do you pay tolls in addition to rent?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You are occupying space that countrymen otherwise might occupy?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Do you use it for storage space?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Having spoken to Mr. Wisley, why didn't you ask to have the shelf put up for sale?

A.—The first year it was put up at an upset price of $60. That was more than I wanted to pay for it. I wanted to make arrangements to get the stall for less than $60.

Q.—Did you talk to Mr. Wisley about the price?

A.—I think offered him $30.

Q.—Are you sure?

A.—I am pretty sure. Mr. Wisley told me he couldn't sell it.

Q.—Did you try to make arrangements with Mr. Wisley this year?

A.—No.

Ald. Potts.—Why did you go to Mr. Potts to get the stall?

A.—I had reason to believe Mr. Potts had the right to sell them.

The Recorder:—What reason had you to believe this?

A.—Well, I judged this from the fact the director told me the previous year.

"An Easy Mark."
 A. J. Fenwick had been in the market 6 years. He never paid for space prior to, or in Mr. Akery's time.

The year after Mr. Akery left Mr. Dunham assigned him a stall—one that he asked for. F. L. Potts came to him and he had bought the market very high, and asked him if he could give him something every week.

Witness asked how much Mr. Potts asked for $1 per week, and he gave it him.

Q.—Why did you give Mr. Potts $1 per week?

A.—Well, I suppose I was an easy mark.

Q.—What did you feel you were getting for the $1 per week?

A.—Nothing.

Q.—Come now: The general impression is that a trader in the market never lets go $1 unless he expects to get back $2. Did you feel you were getting something for this $1 per week?

A.—No, Potts—the collector did not collect tolls on some things in your stand?

A.—I don't think I did.

Q.—If I went up there and asked for $1 a week you would give it to me?

A.—Yes, if you were known about the market.

Q.—A business man does not part with $1 per week without some consideration. Surely you have some reason better than those you have given?

A.—I don't think I have.

Q.—Did you think Mr. Potts had power to take the rent from him, and that the amount he paid Mr. Potts was away in excess of any exemptions received on tolls.

Witness said he had paid Roy Potts since he became collector.

Ald. Vanwart's Evidence.
 Ald. Vanwart was then sworn. He had been chairman of the Safety Board for five years, he said.

Q.—When was your attention first called to the fact that the lessee of the tolls was selling privileges in the market?

A.—Not until recently when this trouble began.

Q.—Has the director made any reports on the subject to you or the board?

A.—No.

Q.—What in your judgment has brought about this sudden interest in market affairs?

A.—The people have been pressing the matter upon me for the last six months. Some stallholders have been picking these goods were being sold in small quantities. This practice has been growing worse for the last six months. Then the order came from council to revise the by-laws, and Ald. Jones and I started to look into matters, and concluded we needed an investigation. The way the showcase came to be ordered out was this: I told the clerk to have such fixtures removed. Mr. Dunham went down and told Mr. Alley, but Mr. Potts stopped up and told Mr. Alley not to move it.

Q.—Mr. Hayes—Why were some stands sold by auction and others not disposed of in a regular way?

Trusting Pot Luck.
 The recorder—in many years' experience of civic affairs, I've seldom been able to understand the workings of some of the departments under the safety board. Many things have apparently been left to themselves—a sort of trusting pot luck. Often the officials have not given any reason for their actions.

Ald. Vanwart—I remember Mr. Wisley told me that the reasons why these stalls were not put up at auction was that in previous years there had been no purchasers for them.

John E. Macaulay said he had been using the market for 20 years. In regard to forestalling he had no knowledge, but as to the regulation requiring that the goods should be held 3 hours he thought it was the most unnecessary thing that could be put up against the farmer. He did not know of any plan whereby the consumer could deal directly with the farmer. He had not shipped to the market since the investigation started, but had consigned his goods to city merchants.

Ald. Potts.—This is what I want to have brought out. The lessee of the tolls is losing money since this rum-puss started.

Witness thought the enforcement of the forestalling provision would restrict the business in the market by 50 per cent. He had paid no extras and had never seen any attempt to enforce the by-laws against forestalling until the last two weeks.

The committee held a short private session and adjourned till Monday at 7 p. m.

 "I think GIN PILLS are the finest things for the kidneys. When first I came to Canada, I suffered with dreadful Pains in my Back, that made me quite ill. A friend gave me six of your GIN PILLS, and after I had taken one dose, I felt less pain. I then got myself a box and before half of it was gone, I had lost all the backache. It did seem a treat to be rid of the pain."

The perfect sound-reproduction

which established the supremacy of the Edison Phonograph lies in the point of contact between the Phonograph and the Record—the sapphire reproducing point.

This is the point that conveys the sound from the Record to the audience. And right here is the secret, the perfect lifelike tone of the Edison instead of a metallic, nasal tone.
