Chief Clark will arrive on the Empress of Ireland this morning, but he is not bringing Frederick Atherton with him. The chief of the Halifax yesterday that Atherton was still in the custody of the police of Liverpool. It is understood that Atherton fought extradition and if this is true may be tried in Liverpool. Otherwise he will come to St. John later

Real Estate News.

It is stated that R. D. Isaacs has sold 30 acres of land on the shore of Courtney Bay to a syndicate of Montreal and Ottawa men. It is said that a party of ten Ottawa men will come to St. John next week to look over the real estate situation here.

Local Millers and Corn Freight.

A resolution endorsing the application for lower freight rates on corn from upper Canada to the east was adopted by the council of the St. John board of trade at a special meeting yesterday morning and will be forwarded to the authorities. The millers of Ontario are seeking a lower rate on cornmeal to the province and the Maritime Cornmeal Millers' Association have taken the stand that this should not be granted to their prejudice, unless the rate is also lowered on the raw products. The arrangement they propose is necessary to enable them to continue to compete with the upper Canadian millers.

Police Court.

In the police court yesterday morning 9 drunks were before the magistrate. Five of them were fined $4 each, one was fined $4, two were remanded and one forfeited an $8 deposit. Bartenders in Dock and Water street saloons will be summoned in one case to find out if one of the prisoners was served with liquor while intoxicated. Frank Gouvermont and Harry Akerley, charged with breaking and entering C. B. Pidgeon's, were brought before the court and remanded until Tuesday morning next. The case against William Peterson charged with wandering about the streets and not giving a satisfactory account of himself was further adjourned until this morning.
