Use Old Dutch Cleanser

Its rapid action enables you to accomplish more work in less time and with less effort than otherwise possible. It cleans mechanically—no harmful chemicals—and will not scratch or injure the surface. Keeps rubbing stoves, floors, woodwork, metal work, windows and everything about the house, barn or dairy spot and span. Its fine particles quickly break dirt and grease which soap, soap powders and other cleansers will not effect.

THREE YEARS OF MISERY

Mrs. Burns Escaped an Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mahoningtown, Pa.—"For three years I suffered untold misery every month, and had to stay in bed the first two or three days. I also had a displacement and other ailments peculiar to women. I became so weak and run down I could scarcely walk across the floor. The doctor told me I would never be well unless I would undergo an operation, but I was advised by my mother to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after I had taken four bottles I am strong and well. I have got others to take your medicine with the same good results and they can't say enough for it."—Mrs. J. A. Burns, Mahoningtown, Pa.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

Women who suffer from these distressing ills should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

happenings of the Week

This annual event is always looked forward to by many as it is a most enjoyable evening. The year it will be even more interesting as it will be the opening of the club's new rooms.

There was a very enjoyable luncheon given at the Kennedy House, Rothsay, on Friday, in honor of Mrs. Charles Eason. The merry party left in four automobiles owned by Mrs. Percy W. Thomson, Mrs. Fred E. Sayre, Mrs. James Stratton and Mrs. Malcolm Mackay. The guests were Mrs. Walter E. Foster, Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen, Mrs. Simon Jones, Miss McMillan, Mrs. Marge, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. George K. McLeod, Miss Sydney Smith.

The three concerts given by the St. John Choral Society this week, were certainly musical treats. The choruses were exceptionally good and showed much careful study and practice under the training of Mr. Ernest S. Peacock, the efficient conductor, who deserved all the praise bestowed upon him. Mrs. Marie Sundellus' charming voice was much enjoyed. It is seldom indeed, one hears such a clear, flexible soprano. Her rendering of the solo "With Verdure Clad From The Creation," was a gem long to be remembered. Mr. G. S. Mayes was in good form and as usual much credit to his difficult solos. Mr. G. J. Parker, of Boston, did good work in his solos, Monday and Tuesday evenings, but the St. John music lovers were delighted to hear their favorite, Mr. C. A. Munroe, who sang his solos on Wednesday evening in a most artistic manner, and had to respond to several encores. Miss Bertha Worden, as accompanist, did splendid work. The orchestra added largely to the fine effect of the performances.

Dr. J. Boyle Thwaites has unfortunately had to undergo another operation at the hospital on Wednesday, but his many friends will be glad to hear that he is daily improving.

Mrs. H. Fielding Rankine was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her residence, Duke street, at a most enjoyable bridge given in honor of Mrs. Charles Kelly. The drawing rooms were decorated with pink tulips and pink carnations. Mrs. Rankine received her guests in a very becoming gown of pongee with bodice of cluny lace. The fortunate prize winners were Mrs. Robert Cowan, Mrs. George Fleming and Mrs. Ralph Robertson. The guests were Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Roy Skinner, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Norman Sancton, Mrs. Robert Cowan, Mrs. David Pidgeon, Mrs. William Vassie, Mrs. Gertrude Mackay, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Mrs. Frank Peters, Mrs. Clarence Nixon.

Mrs. G. S. Mayes, West End, was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at a musical given in honor of her guest, Mrs. Sundellus. The singing this week at the Opera House won for her hosts of friends in this city. Among the guests were Mrs. Anglin, Mrs. Flanders, Mrs. E. A. Sklar, Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Fenton, Miss Alice Hea, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. E. B. Allan, Miss Bertha Worden, Mrs. Harry McKeown, Miss Clarke, Mrs. Herbert Mayes and others. Mrs. Sundellus sang several delightful solos during the afternoon.

Mrs. George K. McLeod entertained informally on Wednesday evening at bridge in honor of Mrs. Eason.

The dinner given by Mr. Carson Flood and Mr. Clifford McAvity on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Flood was a very elaborate affair. Covers were laid for twelve. Tulips and daisies were also on the table and a most sumptuous repast served. Mr. and Mrs. William Lockhart were the choruses. The guests were Miss Lillie Raymond, Miss Nora Robinson, Miss Alice Green, Miss Daphne Crosby, Miss Del McAvity, Mr. Don Skinner, Mrs. MacMillan Mackay.

News of the death of Mrs. Graham, mother of Mrs. H. S. Pettibone of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was heard with deep regret on Wednesday.

Mrs. Percy Rising and little daughter are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Humphrey at Moncton.

Mrs. L. G. Crosby, Germain street, was at home at the tea hour on Thursday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Kelly, of Boston. Mrs. Crosby received her guests in a very becoming gown of black velvet with yoke of white lace, and was assisted by Mrs. Kelly, who wore a charming costume of navy blue with touches of green silk with touches of lace on the bodice. The handsomely appointed tea table was decorated with pink carnations and was presided over by Mrs. David Pidgeon, who was gown-dressed in a very choice frock of bell-trope and wore a large black hat trimmed with ostrich plumes. The waitresses were Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Lillie Raymond, Miss Margaret McAvity, Miss Lillie Kimball, Miss Frances Kerr and Mrs. Roland Skinner who looked radiant in their pretty light dresses. Among the guests were

GOOD AS A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE.

Baby's Own Tablets are as good as a doctor in the house. They never fail to relieve the little one from stomach and bowel troubles, to expel worms, make teething easy and promote healthy sleep. Concerning them Mrs. J. H. Turner, Glenora, Ont., says: "I have recommended Baby's Own Tablets to my friends and have used them for a long time and find them without an equal. They relieve the baby of the feverishness and restlessness while cutting teeth and have made her one of the most healthy babies there is. I always keep them in the house and consider them as good as a doctor." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. Roy Thomson, Mrs. Ernest Sewell, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. Ronald McAvity, Mrs. J. Fred Harding, Mrs. Walter Kelly, Mrs. Spangler, Mrs. Kent Scovill, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. T. E.
