APOHAQUI

Apoahqui, N. B., Dec. 9.—The anticipated victory of Mr. Geo. B. Jones in his recent election to the House of Commons was hailed with delight by his many friends and supporters, who deem it a well fought fight, considering the popularity of his nearest opponent, Dr. D. H. McAllister, who, too, has many friends both politically and personally.

Subdued enthusiasm prevailed among the followers of all parties on the evening of election day, owing to the uncertain news of the result, which remained vague until the following day, and it was not until Wednesday evening that the pent-up enthusiasm of the supporters and friends of Mr. Jones was shown when in response to an invitation the residents, including all classes, assembled in the Public Hall and received a bounteous and luscious treat of confectionery and fruit, after which a huge bonfire was lighted in front of his home and cheers rent the air, showing the esteem and popularity which the new member has attained in this, his home town.

The crisp, bright winter days of this week have been very exhilarating, particularly with the younger set who have turned all other pleasures aside to enjoy the excellent skating. Many curlers and "The Ladies" have frozen glass-like, yet the most popular place to glide seems to be on the Millstream River, where the ice is excellent and shatters from the cool wind, by the high banks, one can skate several miles up the river with ease and pleasure. Each evening all roads have lead to the river.

The class of little maidens of the Union Sunday school, who are taught by Mrs. J. D. Patton held their fortnightly Bible class meeting on Friday at the home of Mrs. Harriet S. Jones, whose daughter Marjorie is one of the class.

Mrs. Patton, who has a wonderful knowledge of the Bible, and pleasing personality, is a general favorite with her pupils and is instilling priceless knowledge in their young impressionable minds. As an evidence of their possession of the true spirit of charity, the little girls have, in various ways, with the help of their teacher, raised a considerable sum of money, the greater part of which they have donated to the Protestant Orphan's Home, to assist in brightening the Christmaside to those children who have been less fortunate than they. The remainder of their receipts will be donated to the Bible Society.

Mrs. J. P. McAuley, who also is a teacher of rare efficiency in the Union S. S. school, has under her jurisdiction a class of girls in the teen age, who, too, have taken up the Bible study and met with Miss Pearl Gaunce on Friday afternoon. After a very pleasant and profitable meeting, afternoon tea was served by Miss Gaunce.

A surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bell, Jr., was an enjoyable social event of the week, when on Wednesday evening a number of their friends invaded their home and received a cordial welcome. A programme of dances, with good music, was much enjoyed by the guests.

The ladies of the Women's Institute of Lower Millstream are busy with needle and thread making up novelties and dainty creations suitable for Christmas gifts, which will be on sale at their institute supper on Tuesday next, when the proceeds of the affair will be given to the entertainment fund of the Maritime Home for Girls.

Rev. L. A. Fenwick, of Jacksonville, and Miss Lena Fenwick, of Fredericton spent a few days in last week here at the Fenwick family residence.

Mrs. P. V. Wedderburn and Mrs. H. M. Parlee, of Hampton, were guests of Mrs. Harriet S. Jones on Friday last. H. J. Johnson, Moncton, was a visitor here on Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. H. Record and Mrs. Jan. S. Record are spending a few days in St. John.

Mr. Cass, Forks spent the week-end at Petticoat, guest of his brother P. L. Perkins and Mrs. Perkins.
