

ALBERTA HEADS THE HONOR ROLL

Nearly Four Per Cent. of Her Population Has Enlisted—Manitoba and Saskatchewan Next—Maritime Provinces Have Only Sent 0.79 Per Cent., and Quebec the Lowest With 0.61.

Ottawa, Aug. 10—According to figures of total enlistment in Canada for overseas service up to June, which are the latest figures available, approximately 106,000 men, or 1.928 of the total population, have enlisted.

STORM CREATES HAVOC IN ONTARIO

Crops Around Brockville Laid Waste by Hail, Rain and Terrific Gale—Brockville Streets Flooded by a Cloud-burst—Loss to the Farmers Enormous.

Brockville, Ont., Aug. 8—A combination of rain, hail and electricity wrought destruction in Brockville and surrounding district this afternoon in one of the most severe storms of the year.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Augusta R. Emmerson. Dorchester, August 11—(Special)—The death occurred here early this morning of Mrs. Augusta Read Emmerson.

Mrs. Edith Lillian Morrison. The death took place at her summer home at Westfield yesterday of Mrs. Edith Lillian Morrison, widow of Dr. Henry H. Morrison, formerly well known in the city as a eye, ear, nose and throat specialist.

Rev. A. J. A. Gollmer. The death of Rev. A. J. A. Gollmer occurred June 26 at Stainfield, England, where he was vicar.

William Brawley. The death of a lifelong resident of St. John, William Brawley, occurred yesterday morning in his eighty-third year.

Edward Kennedy. Tuesday, August 10. Edward J. Kennedy, one of the most respected residents of St. John, passed away at the residence of his son, Partridge Island, yesterday morning, after being confined to his bed for several months.

Sadie Lois Thorne. Wednesday, August 11. A touching sad death is that of Sadie Lois Fulton Thorne, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thorne, 71 Metcalfe street, which occurred yesterday.

Frederick Lugin. Halifax Chronicle, Saturday.—The death occurred on Friday at his residence, 26 Queen street, Halifax, of Edward Frederick Lugin, aged seventy-five years.

Alfred A. Whelpley. Tuesday, August 10. The body of Alfred A. Whelpley, of Carter's Point was interred in the family lot near Woodman's Point on Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Lockhart Fullerton. Wednesday, August 11. Mrs. Rebecca Lockhart Fullerton, an octogenarian resident of the West End for the last forty years, died yesterday after an illness that had only been acute in the last few weeks.

Mr. Lugin was survived by his widow and three sons, B. F. Lugin and Charles B. in Boston, and William E. at home. Mr. Lugin was a native of St. John, N. B.

Mr. Whelpley, who was in his 69th year, died Saturday, a week after he had presided at a family reunion at the old homestead. He was well known along the St. John river, and enjoyed the friendship of a large number of citizens of St. John.

After the usual refreshments, toasts and snapshots, at 6.30, amidst the strains of the national anthem, the service was concluded.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

IN DARDANELLES TRENCHES

General Hunter Weston and two members of his staff in the trenches leading to his dug-out in the Gallipoli peninsula.

ITALIAN SUBMARINE SINKS ONE OF AUSTRIA'S FINE BOATS

Rome, Aug. 11—It is officially announced that the brand new Austrian submarine U-12 has been torpedoed and sunk, with all hands, in the Upper Adriatic sea by an Italian submarine.

The announcement was made in a statement issued by the navy department, which adds: "This morning two Austrian torpedo boat destroyers bombarded Bari, Santo Spirito and Moluffa (Southern Italy on the Adriatic). One civilian was killed and seven were wounded. There was no appreciable material damage."

The U-12 was of the latest type of submarine in the Austrian navy. She was built in 1915 and had a displacement of 1,000 tons. She was 105 feet in length, 21 feet beam and carried five torpedo tubes.

London, Aug. 11, 8.01 p. m.—The British warship Ramsey has been sunk in the North sea by the German warship Meteor, it was officially announced tonight.

The Meteor was formerly owned by the Hamburg-American Steamship Company, and was built at Hamburg, in 1904. She was of 3,613 gross tons, 328 feet long, 44 feet beam and 18 feet deep.

The admiral, in a casualty list issued tonight, says that five officers were lost in the sinking of the Ramsey, and that two were lost in the sinking of the torpedo boat destroyer Lynx when she struck a mine in the North sea last Monday.

of Shall Auld Acquaintance Be Forgotten, the bride couple departed by automobile for Loggville, from whence they took the Maritime express en route to Montreal.

Winnipeg, Aug. 8.—A wedding of interest to St. John friends was that of Miss Annie Hatfield Edgett, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edgett, former residents of St. John but now of Winnipeg.

The bride wore her wedding gown of white net over shadow lace, and trimmed with white satin. Her veil was caught Juliet style with lilies of the valley and wreaths of pearls.

After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Williams left for a trip to Minneapolis and Chicago. They will return to Winnipeg for a short time before leaving for Alberta where they will make their home.

The bride's travelling suit was a tailored cream serge, the coat opening on a blouse of fish-colored georgette crepe embroidered in pale pink.

After the marriage the company enjoyed a substantial and delicious lunch. The bride and groom will go on their honeymoon to Brenton, Yarmouth county (N.S.), where they will reside at least for a time.

At Upper Blackville (N. B.), on the evening of August 9, at 7 o'clock, a quiet home wedding took place at the home of William Donald, brother of the groom, when Charles Donald, of Upper Blackville was united in marriage to Miss Lillian E. Cann, of Brenton (N. S.) by Rev. A. K. Dunlop.

After the marriage the company enjoyed a substantial and delicious lunch. The bride and groom will go on their honeymoon to Brenton, Yarmouth county (N.S.), where they will reside at least for a time.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

SMASHING ALLED WHOLESALE PRICES OF PRODUCE IN ST. JOHN MARKETS

There were some fluctuations in the local markets during the week. Most of the produce was sold at a slight profit.

The quotations yesterday were as follows: COUNTRY MARKET. New potatoes, per bush 0.70 to 0.75.

Choice seed raisins, 15.00 to 16.00. Fancy do 10.00 to 11.00. Currants, cleaned, 15.00 to 16.00.

Salisbury (N. B.), Aug. 11—Johal C. Martin an aged resident of Salisbury parish died last week in the hospital at Moncton.

Woodstock, Aug. 11—(Special)—James C. Crotton, one of the prominent citizens of the town, died tonight.

The deceased was about 82 years of age, and was a native of Halifax, coming to Woodstock twenty-one years ago as a member of the staff of the People's Bank.

He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Wilbur, and deep sympathy is extended to her in her great affliction.

Thursday, August 12. The death occurred yesterday at 81 Sydney street, Mrs. Elizabeth Grace Gibbs, aged 78 years.

Winnipeg, Aug. 8.—A wedding of interest to St. John friends was that of Miss Annie Hatfield Edgett, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edgett, former residents of St. John but now of Winnipeg.

The bride wore her wedding gown of white net over shadow lace, and trimmed with white satin. Her veil was caught Juliet style with lilies of the valley and wreaths of pearls.

After a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Williams left for a trip to Minneapolis and Chicago. They will return to Winnipeg for a short time before leaving for Alberta where they will make their home.

The bride's travelling suit was a tailored cream serge, the coat opening on a blouse of fish-colored georgette crepe embroidered in pale pink.

After the marriage the company enjoyed a substantial and delicious lunch. The bride and groom will go on their honeymoon to Brenton, Yarmouth county (N.S.), where they will reside at least for a time.

At Upper Blackville (N. B.), on the evening of August 9, at 7 o'clock, a quiet home wedding took place at the home of William Donald, brother of the groom, when Charles Donald, of Upper Blackville was united in marriage to Miss Lillian E. Cann, of Brenton (N. S.) by Rev. A. K. Dunlop.

After the marriage the company enjoyed a substantial and delicious lunch. The bride and groom will go on their honeymoon to Brenton, Yarmouth county (N.S.), where they will reside at least for a time.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

At the conclusion of the ceremony and while the bells were ringing out their customary joyous peal, the happy pair departed for the bride's residence at Bayville, where a reception was held in their honor.

NO WHITE STAR ITA

White Star Line All But Dunsley

London, Aug. 20—The early a favorite ship of the line on her present trip was sunk by a German submarine southeast of Fastnet.

The steamer, according to reports, was attacked without warning by a German submarine on the 17th inst.

Whether any of those yet been determined, but States on board, 22 being a crew—32 are missing among those who have not been of the passengers are reported.

Survivors Cared For. The survivors of the ship were picked up later by passing vessels.

They are being accommodated in the hospital at Southampton. Details of the sinking of the ship were not given, but it was stated that the vessel was in the process of being refitted.

When some fifty miles from the coast, the vessel was torpedoed. The marksmen were deadly accurate and quickly settled and shortly afterwards the ship was sunk.

Some of the survivors that they had just witnessed the sinking of the ship, and the vessel was in the process of being refitted.

In their flight the passengers barely adjusted them when the vessel's side.

Ten lifeboats and a number of the crew scrambled. Many but they got hold of the raft woman who fell into the sea.

When the news of the sinking of the ship was received, a tremendous search was made for the survivors.

One of the passengers on the ship was Mr. Douglas, who was reported to have been rescued.

When the news of the sinking of the ship was received, a tremendous search was made for the survivors.

It is possible that some of the survivors were carried in the lifeboats.

Twenty-five Americans were reported to have been rescued.

New York, Aug. 19—The Arabic, as given out in London, showed that all passengers in the vessel had been saved.

It is possible that some of the survivors were carried in the lifeboats.

Twenty-five Americans were reported to have been rescued.

INSURED FOR $1,000,000.