

regard to attendance, and the diligence and attainments of the pupils in attendance.

Dr. T. M. Macintyre, the Principal of the College, addressed the Synod, thanking the members for the interest they had already taken in the prosperity of the college, and asking for it a continuance of their influence, in order still further to attend its usefulness within the bounds of the Synod.

Mr. W. T. McMullen, the Visitor for the past year, was also heard regarding the discharge of his duty. He testified to the excellent scholarship of the College, and the thorough work it was doing for the church.

It was then moved by Mr. John Gray, seconded by Mr. Becket, "The Synod receive the report of the Brantford Young Ladies College, and express their pleasure at hearing of the continued prosperity and good work done for the cause of higher education, and for the cause of Christian training. The Synod would commend it to the confidence of our people, and in compliance with the request of the Board, would appoint again the Rev. W. T. McMullen, as Visitor for the ensuing year."

The motion was carried unanimously.
