

AUSTRIA.

April 30, 1868.

Navigation.

Continued.

Every favor or exemption in these respects, or any other privilege in matters of navigation, which either of the Contracting Parties shall grant to a third Power, shall be extended immediately and unconditionally to the other party.

It is however agreed that this stipulation shall not be applicable to the national fisheries of either of the two countries. (Article I.)

APPLICABLE TO BRITISH COLONIES.

Ships and Cargoes.

The stipulations contained in the preceding Article are also to be applied to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, as well as to the ships and cargoes of the same;

Coasting Trade.

But, as regards the coasting trade, only in those Colonies and foreign possessions the coasting trade of which shall have been, or shall be hereafter, opened to foreign ships, in conformity with the Acts of Parliament which govern this matter. The foreign possessions and Colonies of Her Britannic Majesty, the coasting trade of which has been already so opened to foreign ships, and in which therefore ships belonging to the citizens of the Imperial and Royal States are placed on the national footing, are: British India, Ceylon, Cape of Good Hope, Victoria, St. Lucia. (Article II.)

AUSTRIA-
HUNGARY.

December 5, 1876.

Commerce.

WHEN TERMINABLE.

The duration of the Treaty of Commerce concluded between Great Britain and Austria-Hungary, on the 5th December, 1876, shall be prolonged indefinitely, with the reservation that both the Contracting Parties are at all times entitled to denounce the same. In case one of the two Contracting Parties should notify its intention to put an end to the operation of this Treaty, it shall remain in force for the term of one year from the date upon which the notice shall have been given. (Declaration, 26th November, 1877.)

MOST-FAVORED-NATION TREATMENT.

Subjects. Commercial Privileges. Imposts.

The subjects of His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty who reside temporarily or permanently in the territories and possessions, including the colonies and foreign possessions, of Her Britannic Majesty, and the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, who reside temporarily or permanently in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, shall enjoy therein during the continuance of this Treaty, with respect to residence and the exercise of commerce and trade, the same rights as, and shall not be subjected to any higher or other imposts than, the subjects of any third country the most favored in these respects. (Article I.)
