

PART II.

QUARANTINE. 115

Mr. JOHN LOWE, Deputy Minister of Agriculture. 115

Inquiry into the British scheduling of Canadian cattle, 115. Tuberculosis, 120. History of cattle quarantine in the Dominion, 121.

Mr. A. GOBEL, Deputy Minister of Public Works 123

The port quarantine stations of the Dominion, 123. Equipment at Grosse Isle, 124. Landing docks, 125. William's Head, B.C., 125, 128. Port of St. John, N.B., 126. Port of Sydney, Cape Breton, 126, 128. Port of Halifax, N.S., 128.

Prof. D. McEACHRAN, Veterinary Surgeon 129

Tuberculosis in cattle, 131. Pathology, 131. Detection and extermination, 132. Absence of requisite means, 132. No pleuro-pneumonia in Canadian herds, 132. Glanders—extermination of, 133. Disturbing rumours—a recommendation, 135. Inspection of cattle, before placed on board ship, 136. Lump jaw—remedy for, 136. Protection of Canadian cattle abroad, 137.

PART III.

IMMIGRATION AND COLONIZATION 143

Mr. A. M. BURGESS, Deputy Minister of Interior..... 143

Immigration propaganda to the U.S., 143. A delegation of Iowa dairymen, 144. Cattle quarantine stations on the N.W. boundary between Canada and the U.S., 144. Pay of immigration agents and their fields of labour, 147. Immigration from the U.S. in 1892, 148. Immigration from Europe, 149. Immigrant railway fares by C. P. R. and I. C. R., 151. Immigrant steam-ship rates,—A rise, 151.

ILLUSTRATION PLATES:—

Grasses, 30, 31, 32. Plants grown in alkaline and saline soils chemically treated, 96-97.

MAP, Distance Table..... 156