

Electors residing within the liberties of the Cities of Quebec and Montreal, and of the Town of Three Rivers, to vote at the election of Members to represent the said Cities and Towns respectively ; and whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts, and to avoid all difficulty for the future in this respect ; Be it therefore declared and enacted, &c.,

Who may vote at Elections for the said Cities
and Town.

That none but Electors legally qualified in that behalf residing within the limits of the said Cities of Quebec and Montreal, and of the Town of Three Rivers, as fixed and determined by the Proclamation of Sir Alured Clarke, hereinabove mentioned, shall hereafter be entitled to vote at the Election of Members to represent the said Cities and Towns respectively in the Legislative Assembly of this Province, anything in the Act hereinbefore lastly recited to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where Electors residing in the Banlieues shall vote.

II. And be it enacted, That hereafter Electors qualified as aforesaid, to vote in the liberties (banlieues) of the said Cities and Town respectively, shall vote at any election which may take place for the return of Members to represent in the Legislative Assembly of this Province, the Counties within the limits of which such Cities or Town are respectively situated, that is to say, the Electors in the liberties of the City of Quebec shall vote at the Election for the County of Quebec, the Electors in the liberties of the City of Montreal shall vote at the Election for the County of Montreal, and those in the liberties of the Town of Three Rivers at the election for the County of St. Maurice, subject to the pains and penalties provided by the Act hereinbefore lastly recited.
